Directions

For Boys and Girls arriving in Toronto during the week of the Exhibition for reaching Farley Avenue or Markham Street, respectively.

Those unencumbered with luggage should turn to the left, westerly, on passing out of the archway leading from the platform of the Union Station, and on reaching the foot of Simcoe Street will walk up Simcoe Street in a northerly direction to King Street, where they will take the Bathurst Street car. Cars stop on the East side of the street, and they will wait for the car at the North-East corner of the intersection of the The boys will in two Streets struct the car conductor to set them off at Farley Avenue, when they will find the Home a couple of hundred yards West of Bathurst Street on the north side of the Street. The girls will stay on the Bathurst Street car to College Street, and on alighting at the corner of Bathurst and College Streets will be within three minutes' walk of Mr. Owen's house, which they will reach by turning to the left, westerly, at College Street, and taking the first turning to the right. They will then be on Markham Street, and No. 323 is a few doors above College Street, at the right hand side of the Street The name will be found on a brass plate. Those who wish to save themselves the short walk up Simcoe Street can take a Yonge Street car from the door of the Station and obtain loan the conductor of transfer to the Batton of Street as at the point of inter section.
