This is the last year of the 19th century; and further it may be noted though 1900 may be divided by 4, without leaving a remainder, yet it is not a leap year.

Movable Fasts and Festivals for the year 1900: Ash Wednesday, Feb. 28th; Easter Day, April 15th;

Ascension Day, May 24th; Whitsunday, June 3rd; Advent Sunday, Dec. 2nd; Sunday Letter, G.

There will be five Sundays after Epiphany, and twenty-four after Trinity.

By order of Synod: "The offerings on a Sunday in Epiphany are for the Diocesan Indian Mission Fund."

Notes.

[SELECTED.]

THE LARGER HOPE. The Catholic Church has not given expression to any decree regarding the doctrine of eternal punishment, and there is no "larger hope" than that to be found in the teaching of the Church as contained in Dr. Pusey's WHAT IS OF FAITH AS TO EVERLASTING PUNISHMENT? wherein he shows that we have no warrant to suppose that anyone is lost who has not finally at the last moment rejected the gracious pardon of God.

THE APOSTOLIC SUCCESSION. — The doctrine of Apostolic Succession is merely the assertion of the historical fact that "from the Apostles' time there have been these Orders of Ministers in Christ's Church: Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. What their powers may be is quite another subject. The Church is an organized body, and apostolic succession implies that the organization of to day has an unbroken continuance back to the times of the Apostles
