

you upon the very gibbet on which I understand you threatened to have executed the man to whom I had given my written assurance of safety?"

It was a curious sight to witness on that morning, in High-street—the Sheriff of the City of Kilkenny, on bended knees fishing in the funnel of the filthy channel, with his trembling fingers, for the multitude of scraps of paper which had constituted the body of the protection, and carefully folding each precious fragment which he secured, in a piece of fool-cap deposited in his hat. More than an hour's hard work it was, be assured of it, and an additional hour it took to paste all the bits together so as to have the writing legible. He barely saved his distance, having but a few minutes to spare of the time allowed for the completion of his work. On that day I was liberated by the General's order, and on that day I met the Sheriff again full plump in the open street: but his spirit was broken, he had even neglected, or forgotten to wipe off the stain of the tobacco quid from his forehead—that spit gave him what the Doctors call concussion of the brain—he never overed it?"

My father laughed quietly, as "Gallows Paul" concluded his story, an often told tale, which he always garnished as in the present instance, by some new concluding stroke of quaint humor. And we, poor little wondermongers, held a consultation before we went to bed, about the probability of the General's tobacco-spittle having had really the magical power of perpetrating murder. At last, we came to a unanimous verdict that the destructive quality of the missive must have existed in the strength of the tobacco.

Paul heard of our decision, some time after, and perfectly agreed with us, promising at the same time to take an early opportunity of telling us another story about a tobacco quid as marvellous, and twice as amusing and entertaining as that of General Hunter. —Kilkenny Journal.

A NEW-PROTESTANT BIBLE.—We had a glimpse, a day or two since, of a Shaker Bible—a book not often allowed to be seen by the "world's people." It is entitled "A Holy, Sacred, and Divine Roll, from the Lord God of Heaven to the Inhabitants of the Earth, revealed in the Society at New Lebanon, County Columbia, State of New York, United States of America." This edition was published seven years since, at the Shaker establishment at Canterbury, N.H.; and the publishers say that as they have no regular printer among them, "the mechanical execution may not be perfect in all its parts." It pretends to be a revelation—and the testimony of eleven mighty angels is given, who attended the writing of the roll. One of the angels is named Con-sole-teae-Jah-mon-shue, and another Prehne-fi-nnu-vas-ten-va-ren-ve-ne. According to the angelic injunction the book must be printed and bound by the Shakers themselves, to prevent its sacredness from being polluted by profane hands. The printing was done at Canterbury; but it was found so far necessary to deviate from the Divine command as to go to Concord to have the volume bound—there being no bookbinders in the establishment. It is bound in yellow—according to the order from on high. The book appears to contain some passages from Scripture, altered, amended, enlarged, or curtailed, with original additions or improvements, as they are probably deemed, to suit the peculiar notions of the disciples of Anne Lee.—Lowell Courier.

A GREAT BLESSING TO THE AFFLICTED.
The number and formidable character of diseases of the Liver have long challenged the attention of medical men. Some of these diseases, classed under the general term of Consumption, have been supposed incurable and the unhappy patient allowed to die, without medical science to offer him a hope of recovery. Happily this can no longer be the case. A remedy has been found which will cure all complaints, of whatever character, arising from derangement of the Liver. The Pills discovered by Dr. McLane, of Virginia, act directly on the Liver; and by correcting its operation and purifying it from disease, cuts off and extirpates the complaints which have their origin in the diseases of this organ. Remedies hitherto proposed for liver complaints, have failed to operate upon the seat of the disease; but Dr. McLane's Pills make themselves felt upon the action of the Liver, and by cleansing the fountain, dry up the impure streams of disease which thence derive their existence.

Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. McLane's CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, and take none else. There are other PILLS, purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. McLane's Liver Pills, also his Celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.

MR. KENNEDY, of ROXBURY, has discovered in one of the common pasture weeds a Remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR,
From the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple.
He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases (both thunder humor.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.
Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.
Two to three bottles will clear the system of boils.
Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.
Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.
One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruption of the skin.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.
Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.
Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.
Directions for Use.—Adult, one tablespoonful per day. Children over eight years, dessert spoonful; children from five to eight years, tea spoonful. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day. Mr. Kennedy gives personal attendance in bad cases of Scrofula.
KENNEDY'S SALT RHEUM OINTMENT, TO BE USED IN CONNECTION WITH THE MEDICAL DISCOVERY.
For Inflammation and Humor of the Eyes, this gives immediate relief; you will apply it on a linen rag when going to bed.
For Scald Head, you will cut the hair off the affected part, apply the Ointment freely, and you will see the improvement in a few days.
For Salt Rheum, rub it well in as often as convenient.
For Sores on an inflamed surface, you will rub it in to your heart's content; it will give you such real comfort that you cannot help wishing well to the inventor.
For Scabs: these commence by a thin, acrid fluid oozing through the skin, soon hardening on the surface; in a short time are full of yellow matter; some are on an inflamed surface, some are not; you will apply the Ointment freely, but do not rub it in.
For Sore Legs: this is a common disease, more so than is generally supposed; the skin turns purple, covered with scales, itches intolerably, sometimes forming running sores; by applying the Ointment, the itching and scales will disappear in a few days, but you must keep on with the Ointment until the skin gets its natural color.
This Ointment agrees with every flesh, and gives immediate relief in every skin disease flesh is heir to.
Price, 2s 6d per Box.
