CITY AND ELSEWHERE.
Ald. Jameson and ex-Ald. Bole are definitely in the field for the forthcoming mayoralty election.

At meetings of the local branches of the C. M. B. A. next week the officers for the ensuing year will be nominated.

Rev. Father, Kavanagh, S. J., of St. Boniface college, will lecture in Rat Portage on the 21st inst., in aid of the funds of the church there.

We are sure our city readers will not forget the concert to be held in St. Mary's Academy on the evenings of Thursday and Friday, the 21st and 22nd inst.

Rev. Father LaRue, S. J., of St. Boniface college, has been an inmate of the hospital during the past week laid up with a bad cold and throat affection.

In our account of the annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Parish of the Immaculate Conception last week it should have been stated that Mrs. J. Landers was elected vice-president.

A letter received this week from Mr. J. J. Courtney, formerly of this city, and a member of branch No. 52, C. M. B. A., brings the news that he and family are now living at Wichita, Kansas, and are doing well.

The new power house of the Electric Street Railway company, which is a credit to the city, is now working; the button setting the machinery in motion being touched yesterday by Mrs. Gilroy, wife of the mayor.

Mr. Cornelius Boes has not yet recovered from his accident of six weeks ago sufficiently to be able to leave his bed. There is every reason to believe that he will never completely overcome the effects of his injuries.

The new time card on the C. P. R. main line came into effect on Sunday. The express from the west now arrives at 11.30 a. m. and departs at 12.40 p. m. The express from the east arrives at 3.30 p. m. and departs at 5.10 p. m.

The grand jury at the present sittings in their address to the judge spoke in terms of great praise regarding the management of St. Boniface and Winnipeg general hospitals and said that in their opinion both these institutions are deserving of most generous support.

Rev. Father Lajeunesse, for some time past curate of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, went south on Friday, having been appointed to a church in the vicinity of Chicago. Rev. Father Bourdeau went home on the same train much better in health for his short holiday in Manitoba.

At the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Sunday the pastor, Rev. Father Cherrier, continued his series of interesting and instructive sermons on the Apostles' Creed, speaking on "the resurrection of the body." During the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, some choice music was given, but the choir certainly did not do itself justice during the shortened vespers. This was all the more to be regretted as many strangers were present who would evidently form a very erroneous impression as to the ability of the choir.

At High Mass on Sunday the able and zealous pastor of St. Mary's church announced from the pulpit the determination arrived at to complete the tower and interior of St. Mary's church. He also explained what was done for the schools. The Catholics of Winnipeg owe a deep debt of gratitude to the zealous pastor of St. Mary's church for the onerous work done by him for our schools and those who listened to his modest statements felt that his labors were much more heavy than stated. The people of St. Mary's appreciate the zeal of their parish priest and will do all they can to make St. Mary's one of the handsomest, as it is to-day, one of the most devotionable churches in the city.

We much regret having to record the death of Mrs. O'Donohue, wife of James O'Donohue, of Stony Mountain, the sad event taking place at the Grand Pacific hotel on Monday. Deceased, who was 55 years of age, came to Manitoba with her husband three years ago from Waterloo, Ontario, and she leaves her husband and seven grown up children to mourn her loss. R. P. and Jos. O'Donohue, of this city are nephews of the deceased. The funeral took place this morning, Requiem High Mass being sung at St. Mary's church after which the remains were interred in the Fort Rouge cemetery. We offer our sincere condolences to all the members of the family. R. I. P.

Waghorn's Guide for November is out, posting us on all changes in time cards, new post offices, mails, etc. The index to railway stations introduced last week has been further extended and ranks as a most valuable feature of the Guide, being the only record of existing railway points in the Western Provinces. The new county court sittings are given, as also the recent amended game laws in the Territories. A table of provincial fees chargeable for Letters Patent for joint stock companies etc., is introduced, and all recent changes in general business tables will be found carefully recorded. The usual maps of the city and province, weather record, sun and moon almanac and diary tables are given.

Dr. A. E. Versailles died this morning at his residence, 221 Hargrave street. Such was the brief announcement which met the eyes of the young and popular doctor's host of friends in the city when they took up their Free Press this morning, and to nearly all it came as a very severe shock, the illness to which he succumbed having been of such short duration that but few had heard anything of it. Just before going to press we hear that his mother has been communicated with and no arrangements for the funeral will be made until she is heard from. Deceased was a member of the C. M. B. A. and the Catholic Order of Foresters, being medical officer of the St. Boniface Court of Foresters. We are able to give no further particulars this week of this very sad and distressing event, but we respectfully offer to the widow and all members of the bereaved family our sincere condolence in their great affliction.

Resolution of Condolence.

At the last meeting of Branch No. 52, C. M. B. A., the following resolution of condolence was passed:

Moved by Bro. Chancellor D. Smith, seconded by Bro. G. Germain, that this branch tender to Bro. J. K. Barrett, LL. D., a vote of condolence sympathizing with him in the great trials through which he has lately passed in the death of his two beloved children and his mother, and be it

Resolved that this expression our sympathy be placed on record and spread over the minutes of the branch and published in the NORTHWEST REVIEW and "The Canadian."

A Charming Evening.

On Tuesday, the 6th inst., a charming musical and dramatic entertainment was given in St. Boniface College by Winnipeg and St. Boniface amateurs, before a select and appreciative audience under the patronage of Rev. Father Messier, pastor of the cathedral and chaplain of branch No. 230 of the C. M. B. A. A comedy-opera "Sorcier Sans le Savoir," the music of which was composed by Prof. Sale, of St. Boniface college, was very creditably rendered, especially as regards vocal execution, by the following:

- CAST.
- Marquis de Walmar.....A. Fiset
  - Le Comte (son Neveu).....Alex. LaRiviere
  - Pienot (tisserand).....Roger Goulet
  - Jacques (son fils).....X. Gosselin
  - Julien (ami de Jacques).....Jos. Levesque
  - M. Moitin (nomme de com-.....M. Moitin
  - plance de M. de Walmar).....J. B. Leclerc
  - Champagne } valets du }.....Ole Vere
  - Leiteur } Marquis }.....Jos. N. Milette

Messrs. Goulet and Leclerc's acting was especially remarkable. The exclusively musical part of the programme was in the hands of the Messrs. Bouche and Miss Chevrier, who gave a nice Mandolin and Guitar trio, of Miss Molot, a most able accompanist and piano soloist, and Mr. Stanley Adams, whose stirring English songs earned for him a real ovation.

The meeting of the parishioners of St. Mary's church, held on Tuesday evening the 5th inst., was large and most representative. Mr. J. A. Richard was elected chairman and R. Driscoll secretary. After an address from the chairman, in which he explained the object of the meeting, the following gentlemen were called upon to give their views: Dr. Barrett, Messrs. D. Smith, E. Cass, P. Marrin and P. Shea. All the speakers warmly endorsed the efforts of the pastor to complete the tower and interior decoration of the church. It was moved and seconded that it is the sense of this meeting that the tower and interior decorations of the church be completed and the chime of bells be placed in the tower, which was unanimously carried. It was also decided that this work be commenced early in the spring and that a subscription list be opened in the meantime to defray expenses which were estimated at about $7,000. The meeting then adjourned to meet again on Tuesday evening, 12th inst., to form the necessary committees and discuss the best means of carrying out the work. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed throughout and everyone felt that the reverend pastor's labors for our schools and his assurance of aid for them deserved our hearty thanks and appreciation.

THE PASSION PLAY.

Descriptive and Illustrated Lecture to be Given in St. Mary's Church.

On Thursday evening, December 12th, our city readers will be given an opportunity of enjoying a most interesting entertainment which has been arranged by the Catholic Truth Society. It will take place in St. Mary's church and will consist of a lecture by Rev. Father

Kavanagh, S. J., of St. Boniface college, entitled "The Passion Play at Oberammergau," illustrated with lime light views. We suppose there are few of our readers who have not read with interest the newspaper descriptions of this celebrated play which is given at regular intervals in the little German town, and which attracts outsiders from all parts of the civilized globe. It is not within the range of possibility that many residents of the North-west will ever have an opportunity of seeing the play itself, but Winnipeggers will be given a chance of doing the next best thing for those who attend this lecture will be treated to a most interesting descriptive lecture illustrated by realistic views. During the evening appropriate vocal and instrumental music by accomplished musicians, whose names will be announced later, will be given. The entertainment is under the distinguished patronage and approval of His Grace the Archbishop and it is probable that next week we shall be able to announce additional features which will add to the interest with which hundreds in Winnipeg will, we are convinced, look forward to this unique entertainment. For further particulars we refer our readers to our advertising columns and would recommend them to get tickets as soon as possible.

Ministering to the Altar.

Since the foundation of the Tabernacle Society of Washington, D. C., in 1866 the organization has assisted some 1,269 churches or missions in seventy-six different dioceses, distributing 28,635 articles. These gratifying results have entailed a disbursement in cash and in value of articles donated through the association of about $60,000. The society has distributed in all 2,520 vestments, 21,527 altar linens of all kinds, 626 sacred vessels, 5,072 miscellaneous articles, such as copes, benediction veils, altar cards, altar stones, candlesticks, missals, cruets lamps, etc.—Catholic Visitor, Richmond, Va.
