

---

NATO and the OECD that year. Terrorism has been the subject of separate declarations at a number of summits, with Canada playing a major role in the adoption of the Declaration on International Air Hijacking at Bonn in 1978 and the Statement on International Terrorism at Tokyo in 1986. Also in Tokyo in 1986, leaders addressed the implications of the nuclear accident at Chernobyl. At Venice in 1987, the political situation in South Africa was discussed; leaders also took further steps to strengthen and extend the Bonn Declaration on International Air Hijacking.

At Toronto, leaders addressed a number of political questions: East-West relations, the Middle East, South Africa, terrorism and narcotics.