

the second being a measure with respect to the Revised Statutes of Canada. Then we shall take up Bill No. 345, to amend the Tariff Board Act; Bill No. 346, being the Canadian National Railways Financial Guarantee Act, 1948; Bill No. 60, to amend the Veterans Insurance Act; Bill No. 196, to amend the War Veterans Allowance Act, and Bill No. 200, to amend the Veterans Rehabilitation Act. When we are through with the war veterans bills, we shall take up Bill No. 198, to amend the Dominion Elections Act. If we complete those bills we shall go into supply and take up national health and welfare, trade and commerce, and veterans affairs.

Mr. KNOWLES: May I ask the minister a question with respect to the three bills in the name of the Minister of Veterans Affairs? Each of these bills has been amended in committee. Does the minister know whether reprinted copies of the bills as amended will be available to us tomorrow?

Mr. FOURNIER (Hull): I do not know, but I shall inquire and do my best to have the bills with the amendments in the hands of the members tomorrow before we start to study them. I will do the best I can.

Mr. KNOWLES: That is good. Thank you.

At eleven o'clock the house adjourned without question put, pursuant to standing order.
