

history and it will assure that the private interests and significant political obligations of candidates and parties will be public.

Much has been accomplished during this Session, but the pace of legislative reform and innovation must continue rapidly so that the challenges of the future may be met.

Members of the House of Commons:

Prorogation of Parliament

I thank you for the provision you have made for the public services during the previous and the current fiscal year.

Honourable Members of the Senate:

Members of the House of Commons:

May Divine Providence continue to bless our country.

This concluded the first session of the twenty-ninth parliament.
