Hon. Norman A. Cafik (Minister of State (Multiculturalism)): 1. There are over 6,000 names on the mailing list, which includes persons across Canada, individuals from the media, ethnic organizations, ethnic press, members of the Canadian Consultative Council on Multiculturalism and members of the general public who make enquiries.

2. As inquiries for information and assistance from the Multiculturalism Programme are addressed to, and processed by, not only the Multiculturalism Directorate but also through offices of the Minister for Multiculturalism and the Secretary of State, the Departmental Secretariat and all regional and local offices of the Department of the Secretary of State, such information is not readily available. It would involve an inordinate amount of work at significant cost to gather such data.

Question No. 888—Mr. Mitges:

From the time of the Prime Minister's announcement of a multiculturalism policy in October 1971, how many directors have been employed by the Multiculturalism Directorate and, in each case, what was his/her (a) name (b) term as director (c) salary range while serving as director?

Hon. Norman A. Cafik (Minister of State (Multiculturalism)):

3. What was the salary range of each of these employees?

4. How many of the employees were involved in more than one programme and, in each case, what was the programme?

Hon. Norman A. Cafik (Minister of State (Multiculturalism)): 1. (a) 40; (b) 40.

[Mr. Speaker.]
