A supreme court action which promises to be of considerable interest was started yesterday when Thomas Dunn, thru his solicitors, Bell and Pringle, issued a writ against John Roberts for $5000.

Plaintiff claims his home was happy until Roberts, the defendant, was taken as a roomer. Roberts, the plaintiff alleges, immediately began paying marked attention to his wife and finally prevailed on her to leave her home and live with him in another part of the city. He now seeks damages to the amount of $5000.

Alieged Sedition.

At the request of the Dominion police, Detectives Shirley and Smith last night arrested Almonde Delmora, 196 Lottridge street, on a nominal charge of vagrancy. He is an Italian and it is alleged that he has been circulating literature urging his countrymen to oppose all governments. The local police have had him under surveilance for some time, and yesterday received a request from the Dominion police that he be taken into quetody.

That there are only seventeen of the Pist Highlanders' quota left, where he is, was the startling statement made by Pte. W. Trezise in a letter to his mother. Mrs. Kingdon, 202 East Jackson street. Capt. Morrison's casualty list, covering all losses up until May 31, only reported 60 casualties out of the 154 Highlanders who left Hamilton with the first contingent. Pte. Trezise's letter would, therefore, indicate that 77 more 91st men have been killed in the last month.

TEMPLARS CELEBRATE.

The thirty-second anniversary of the organization of the International Lodge of Good Templars was befittingly celebrated last evening in the C.O.O.F. Hall, East Jackson street, by its annual ice cream social.

Tom McNaughton, chief templar, who occupied the chair, presided over an attendance of members and friends which packed the hall to the doors.

The following program was presented by these talented artists: Piano duet, Mrs. Frances and Ruth Creasy; monolog, James Rosic; song, Miss Elsic Addison; humorous song, Scott Morrison; violin sole, J. The most important item of yesterday's proceedings was a discussion as to whether the Municipal Loan Association should be wound up or not, it being finally decided to hold a further

MONTAGUE DENIES female members had a wide range of action in this performance and acquitted themselves admirably. The story of the play is a simple one. The focus character is Mary Turner, a shop girl who is convicted for stealing in a store in which she was employed, altho not guilty of the theft. She is sent to prison to serve a term of three years. She pleads for her freedom, but is the victim of the ruling of her employer, who is anxious to make an example of someone in order to reduce the taking of goods from his store. that he had charges against the acting chief for not carrying out his duties. The motion was defeated and stands as notice of motion. The affairs of the Municipal Loan Association were the subject of the greater portion of discussion at the Suggestion of Deal With Chiafternoon's session. It was introduced by a letter from the association contained in the report of the treasury board and a recommendation from the board that the association be allowed to wind up or continue its affairs as it sees fit without interference from the board of control. In his letter Frederic Nicholls, the president, suggested that the affairs of the associa-tion be taken over by the city, the same to be operated as a civic de-partment, or, as an alternative, that t be wound up.

Borrowed Too Much.
During the discussion it was brought out that the association sold bonds

prontable business, and all "Within the Law."

The son of the merchant rince becomes infatuated with Mary and she marries him. This is her sweet revenge. The forger has been mixed up in a frame-up by the police department thru a stool pigeon to rob the home of Gilder, the merchant prince. During the attempted robbery the stoll pigeon is killed, and the son takes the blame for the act. Garson is at last cornered by the inspector and confesses after being assured that the son and Mary will go free and the matter hushed up.
