

LETTER TO JEWS FROM RABBI PRICE

Urges Loyal Hebrew Citizens to Respond to Trafalgar Day Appeal.

PRINCIPLE OF LIBERTY

Idea Ever Present When Speaking of the British Empire.

As loyal citizens of this great and blessed country, you are aware, I am sure, that a great movement, symbolical of the unity of the empire, is to be ushered in this coming Thursday in Toronto, as well as throughout the British Empire. The Red Cross Societies have asked for—whose request must be as well as full, the call being addressed to a united people.

On the face of it, nothing but good can result from such a celebration, both to the individual and the English-speaking community. To reduce the habit of selfish thought and narrowness of aim, and to foster broader and more comprehensive views of one's duty and of life itself, such an attitude on the part of the individual member of society is in itself a great gain.

The rising generation of Englishmen and women, in being taught that it belongs to one empire, great and respected throughout the world, must at the same time increase in self-respect, in power, and in laudable ambition, in the attempt to prove itself worthy of the privilege of contributing to the maintenance and growth, to the stability and preeminence, to the glory of those who live and die upon the field of battle and in the marts of life of such a country.

It is to bring home to the dwellers of this land (and let other lands look on, without being suspicious or jealous), these facts and ideas that from this day henceforth, the children of this country are to receive in their impressionable years a deeper insight into the history and expansion of the empire than has been the custom during the past. That an annual celebration has been fixed upon.

We must remember that this great Red Cross Day is a day which will test our merits, this day, coming as it does at the present time, would do as much for patriotism of this great empire as for the individual to whom it will bring succor and help. This day, with its coming national day, is a day which will test our merits, this day, coming as it does at the present time, would do as much for patriotism of this great empire as for the individual to whom it will bring succor and help.

But we must remember whatever ideas the term "Great Britain," or the British Empire, may connote for the ordinary citizen of this realm, there is one idea uppermost in the mind of the Jew whenever these terms are uttered; and it is by reason of this one thought alone that we Jews, citizens as loyal as any of whom this country can boast, can join in the movement now known as "Red Cross Day," with a sincerity and wholeheartedness which admit of no question. The idea ever present in the Jew when he speaks of England, is the principle of liberty and freedom—the principle for which even Englishmen had to fight, but which, let us hope, is (in spite of slight disappointments of late) now firmly established in the government of this country. It is the heritage of old, this principle of liberty, the conception of community of free men, freely governing themselves, that is even more valuable and lasting than the possession of continents and colonies; and it contains within itself the faculty of self-preservation and healthy expansion in a more certain degree than the case in those countries in which despotism and lawlessness take the place of constitutional government and the liberty of the subject.

And as we witness in admiration the unfolding of the Red Cross flag on Oct. 21, may we not remember that we are taught to connect with this giving, a celebration something higher, taught us up to the source of all greatness and power—the source of all nobility and glory and the kingdom of God and to feel and exclaim in the words of the psalmist of old, "Thou hast given a banner to them that fear Thee, that it may be displayed because of truth—thru God we shall do valiantly." So mote it be. Sincerely yours,

Julius J. Price, Ph.D.
Rabbi, University Avenue Synagogue,

BIG FALLING OFF IN ENLISTMENTS

Only Fifty-Four Recruits
Joined Colors in Toronto Yesterday.

SECOND CYCLIST CORPS

Call Made for Men in Interesting Section of Army Work.

Active service enlistments totaled 54 yesterday. It was a drop of nearly 50 as compared with the previous day. The first day of the week is nearly always a better enlistment day than Tuesday, partly due to the fact that it has the benefit of the stimulation of recruiting given by the Sunday night patriotic rally.

Among Tuesday's enlistments were a number of former members of the British army. They included men who had served with the Royal Horse Artillery, 8th Brigade, Suffolk Regiment, 10th Hussars and 4th Hussars.

Another good parade and route march was held by the Governor-General's Body Guards last night. Major Cameron was in command. The overseas men in the Guards, nearly a hundred strong, were with the regiment and received the place of honor during the march.

It is rumored that another cyclist corps, between 200 and 300 strong, will soon be called for by the military authorities at Ottawa. Any man wanting to go overseas with a cycle corps should apply at once at the Corps of Guides at the Armouries, Capt. F. Davis, assistant director of military intelligence, and who is the head of the Corps of Guides for Canada, has written to the Toronto unit, expressing praise for their work in making military manoeuvres maps of the district adjacent to this city. The outdoor work on the High Park district map is concluded, and the Guides will start in to draw the Cedarvale district on Saturday.

Many Canadian soldiers now overseas are for various reasons being returned to Canada, at a rate of 200 a week. This is a message sent to Toronto by C. T. Curry, a newspaper man of this city, who is now at Folkestone, England.

Hopes Gone Now.
Hopes that the 8th Overseas Battalion which has nearly 800 Toronto men, would be trained in this city during the war, have been dispelled by the special order that it will be quartered in Brantford and in Ingham, being reported. Lieut. Col. W. T. Stewart, the O.C., states that the arrangements are satisfactory and will be explicitly carried out.

During the big trek to Toronto one-half of the 8th will branch off to Brantford and proceed to Brantford. The heartiest wish will keep on to Toronto, where on Nov. 8 it will train for Oshawa. Promotion of Capt. J. A. Campbell of the C.A.V.C. to rank of major is announced.

Major-General C. C. Monro, who is now in command of the Dardanelles forces, is an uncle of two Toronto boys, E. Wyly Grier, son of the late Peter, and A. Munro Grier, K.C. They have received a letter telling of General Joffre's decision to General Monro on both cheeks when presenting him with the Legion of Honor.

Lieut. Homer Smith, now serving with the Royal Flying Corps in France, has sent word to his mother, Mrs. E. B. Smith of Crescent road, that the allies' planes are running a patrol twice daily 80 miles into the German's country. He makes one trip a week. Dropping bombs is part of the program. He says that his machine was hit six times by anti-aircraft guns on one occasion.

Met at the Station.
When two veterans of the war arrived in Toronto yesterday they were met at the Union Station by Sgt.-Major Geo. Crichton, as representative of the City of One and a Half Miles. The veterans were Pte. H. T. Burford, who lived in One and a Half Miles, before he enlisted. Owing to an attack of pneumonia he has been returned to Canada to spend the remainder of his life.

The other returned soldier was Lance Corporal MacCartney, who lived at 224 Crawford street, Toronto. The left sleeve of his coat was empty. A high explosive shell had shattered his arm. It was at St. Julien.

Employment of returned soldiers in the toy-making industry is being arranged by Toronto labor men. A Christmas rush is expected soon.

BULGARIANS SAY SERBS MISUSED WHITE FLAG

Treachery at Vranja Alleged—Advance on Entire Front Claimed.

SOFIA, Oct. 19, via London.—The following official communication from general headquarters was issued today:

"Our armies continued yesterday to advance on the whole front in Serbian territory. In the Morava valley our troops captured Vranja, thus cutting the railway line from Ugljevik to Nish."

"On entering Vranja our cavalry was at first welcomed with cries of 'Selava' (Hurrah) by the populace, who had raised white flags. This was followed by a hail of bullets from every house."

"Our troops, who are advancing from Egri Palanka on Strazina, have captured a Serbian battalion."

"In the Bregalnitsa valley we captured the Town of Kotschana, from which we are advancing westward."

ENEMY REINFORCED

German Claims of Repulsing Attacks Not Borne Out by Facts.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Field-Marshal Sir John French sends the following report from headquarters in France: "Since my communication of October 14, the artillery on both sides has been very active. On the south of La Bassée Canal. The enemy has made a number of bombing attacks, all of which have been repulsed."

The continued report in the German communiques of the repulse of British attacks northeast of Vermelles have no foundation in fact. "The positions where the fighting mentioned above has taken place would be more correctly described as southwest of Auchy-Les La Bassée, from which it is about 1500 yards distant. It lies about 3000 yards northeast of Vermelles."

Line of New Front.
The new front now leaves our old line at a point about 1200 yards southwest of the southern edge of Auchy-Les La Bassée and runs thence thru the main trench of the Hohenzollern redoubt in an easterly direction, 400 yards south of the southern bulge of the line. It then runs southwest to the southwestern edge of Cite Saint Elie to a point 600 yards west of the north edge of Hulluch.

The line then runs along the Lens-La Bassée road to the chalk pit, 1500 yards north of the highest point of Hill 70 and then runs southwest to a point 1000 yards east of Loos Church, where it bends southeast to the northern slope of Hill 70, and runs along the western slopes of the hill, bending southwest to a point 1200 yards south of Loos church, where it runs due west back to our old line.

The chord of the salient we have created in the center of the line measured along our old front is 7000 yards in length. The depth of the salient at the chalk pit is 3200 yards. "Since September 28 the enemy has reinforced his troops, holding the front we attacked by 40 battalions, which include a division of the Guard. After a heavy bombardment the enemy attacked our front this afternoon between the quarries and Hulluch, but was everywhere repulsed."

Forty battalions comprise about three German divisions.

GALT SOLDIER DIES, VISITING RELATIVES

While on Leave From Front

Special to The Toronto World.

He was a well-known football player of this city. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrenson, have just been advised by relatives of their son's death.

A Galt man today figures in the casualty list. Sgt. William John Morris of the 18th Battalion, 2d was reported as having received a gunshot wound in the left forearm, and having been admitted to a London hospital. He is single, a native of Warr, Lancashire, and was formerly a coal miner. He lived at 115 Francis street, this city.

APPLICATION OF KELLY REJECTED BY COURT

Winnipeg Contractor Unable to Get Stay in Civil Proceedings Against Him.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 19.—The application made on behalf of Thomas Kelly for a stay of proceedings in the civil suit taken against him by the province of Manitoba was refused today by Judge Curran. Kelly sought to have further action in the civil court postponed until after the conclusion of the criminal charges brought against him, since both civil and criminal proceedings arise out of the same building contract. Edward Anderson, counsel for Kelly, has taken an appeal from Judge Curran's decision to the court of appeal, where the argument will be heard on Monday next.

FIVE AMBULANCES DONATED BY S. A.

Dedicated by Commissioner

Last Night.

FOR USE IN RUSSIA

Addresses Made by Lieut.
Governor Hendrie and Mayor Church.

Some weeks ago Commissioner W. J. Richards of the Salvation Army communicated with the British headquarters to the effect that they were donating five motor ambulances to the Red Cross. They in turn cabled to the Czar of Russia asking if he would accept the ambulances from the eastern division of the Salvation Army of Canada for Red Cross work in the east and the answer was received: "shall be delighted to accept ambulances, which we are greatly in need of."

Last night a vast audience in Massey Hall witnessed the dedication of these ambulances to the service of the Red Cross in Russia by the commissioner, and the ceremony was also taken part in by Sir John S. Hendrie, and Mayor Church.

The lieutenant-governor acted as chairman and in a few well chosen remarks referred to the great work which was being accomplished by the Army in Canada. He also said that

BRITISH RED CROSS

before this epoch-making campaign is finished to-morrow night.
Hold this thought up before you and look it in the face:

That the greatest recruiting force we have is the Red Cross which puts 60% of the wounded back into battle.

Think of it! 60 per cent. can be made fit for service. We at home—without so much as a scratch to our precious skins —can remedy over one-half the damage the enemy can do to our men.

"I DO NOT KNOW how long this war will last," said some one, "but this I do know, that some day our soldiers will come marching home and be met by cheers and bands of stirring music. If there is one vacant place in the ranks because the Red Cross work broke down for lack of money asked for from me
—God pity me, for I will hold for myself nothing but contempt."

Let no one think that he is being begged for money

privilege—no less than the inexpressible privilege of saving life, life now being laid down for him and his.

Toronto Party Sufficiently Interested to Go and See the Property.

Possibly one of the largest gold mines on the North American continent has been unearthed near Le Pas, a terminal of the Hudson Bay Railway. The news of the find comes as a result of the recent activity of the Nipissing Mining Company interests in making a trip to the property over two weeks ago. When Jack Hammel, a mining man of some repute in the north country, brought the news of the find east, a party consisting of E.
P. Earle, David Fiske, D. Allen and R. B. Watson were sufficiently interested to make the two-day trip up the Saskatchewan River instead of sending their engineer.

Mr. Fiske returned to Toronto, but said that he had no information to give out concerning the find at the present time.

Average of Two Thousand Cars

WINNIPEG, Oct. 19.—Canadian the prairie provinces an average of 2000 cars per day, each carrying an average of 1200 bushels of wheat and up to 2000 bushels of oats.

If the number of cars loaded daily on the C.P.R. in the west with grain alone were placed end to end they would cover a distance of fifteen miles.
