

one of the gentle-
s a sheriff for that
been dead these
ast!

t accounts from St
appears that the
re have not yet

of Glasgow lately
hutches of coals to Paisley.

rand de Perigord
his first days in
thus actively:—In
he had an audience
after which he di-
Duke of Leeds;
d separately upon
Mr Burke.

se of M. Talley-
to his country, is
to relate to the sale
is in France, to a
ish merchants who
to purchase them.
son, said to be up-
ay of the English
t presented to the
mbly of France, p
n may be dischar-
mes in succession
ling.

ured that the mi-
ais possession some
en by a leading pposition) during
tation with Russia,
d to be of a very
if not treasonable
like many other
e, this is probably
ation; or at least

INDEX.

A.		Buchanan's poetry, remarks on,	81
ABERDEEN, remarkable instances of	improvement in agriculture at,	Buff colour, receipt for dying cotton,	260
Academy, Swedish, proceedings of,	57	C.
Account of the rhinoceros, 47—of	an ancient feast, 104—of anti-	Cairns,	134
quities in Scotland,	132-282	Candles, new invented machine for	making,
Agriculture, possible improve-	ments in, exemplified,	189	224
Albanicus on scientific government,	312	Calculator on the chances in the	lottery,
Advantages of miscellaneous read-	ing, 35—of roguery, exempli-	Carriages upon springs, benefits of,	254
fied,	127	Catalogue of Portuguese books,	20-54
Ancient feast,	104	Chances in the lottery,	172
Anecdote of Cromwell, 32—of	the duke of Bedford, 39—of	Chatham, earl of, print of by Copley,	71
German soldiers, 2-262—of the	king of Prussia,	2d.	263
Animal instinct, observations on,	86	Circular dry stone-buildings in	Scotland, account of,
Antiquities in Scotland, account	of,	132-282	282
Arcaen-ciel on miscellaneous read-	ing,	Coffin, account of an ancient stone	one, newly discovered,
35	236	Comparative view of the mode of	writing history in ancient and
Arthur's oven,	236	modern times,	121
Arts, intelligence respecting,	114-224-257-330	Corn bill, proceedings on,	187-2d. 257-333
Asakia, a tale,	180-220	To correspondents,	80-120-192-2d. 263-304-336
B.		Cotton, how to dye a fine buff co-	lour,
Badajoz, dean of, a tale,	203	260
Balance of trade and exchange,	observations on,	Court of the press ascribed to Dr	Franklin, account of,
93	199		253
Banking companies observations on,	199	D.
Bear, white, remarkable instances	of ferocity and affection for her	Dean of Badajoz, a tale,	203
young,	90	Description of a natch at Thibet,	37
Bedford, duke of, anecdote of,	39	Dictionaries, remarks on the best	method of compiling,
Beet root, sugar obtained from,	331	277
Bombardion on Smollet's novels,	130	Domestic improvement, conse-	quences of to Britain,
Boydell's Shakespeare, 74—Mil-	ton and Thomson,	312
75	75	Druids temples in Scotland, ac-	count of, 137—Plan and eleva-
Britain, remarks on its political	progress,	282	139
265-305	265-305	Dun-gles, description of,	282
		E.
		Edward II. proclamation of,	65
		Effects of imagination,	169
		Exchanges, observations on,	93