The Concert last evening by the Mozart Quartette gave real pleasure. The best critics of New York were present, and all that had been previously said of the Quartette was fully verified by their performance. The company is strong, and the evenings of song they give are veritable "apples of gold in pictures of silver."—York Evening Dispatch.

The Mozart Quartette fully met the expectation of all. The personnel of the members of the Quartette and their director at once place their auditors at ease, and they deservedly win cordial favor. Miss Deeg's singing will be remembered by all who have heard her sweet voice. Miss Brayton touched sympathetic cords with rich, deep contralto tones. Mr. Koch sings with fervor and understandingly. Mr. Beyerle's voice is mellow in tone, pleasing modulation and distinct articulation being a marked feature in his singing. Prof. Newcomb exhibited tact, taste and talent, and in the difficult task assumed his musical ability was clearly distinguishable. His piano solo, "Evening Song," is a gem of sweetness and sentiment. The professor responded after two recalls by a fine performance of a brilliant waltz.—York Evening Daily.

The Mozart Quartette gave a Concert in the Market Hall last evening. Our citizens expected to bear excellent singing, and they were not disappointed. The performance of "Amen Leid" and "Triumphal March" by Mr. Newcomb, showed his artistic ability. All present were satisfied, and wish to hear the Mozarts again.—Pottstown Ledger.

The elite of Geneva greeted the Mozarts last evening. The programme was choice and finely rendered.—Geneva (N. Y.) Gazette.

THE MOZART QUARTETTE.—This company gave one of the best musical entertainments here, last evening, that our best judges have had the opportunity of hearing for some time. Their programme was an excellent one, containing nothing but the finest selections from their extensive repertoire, sweetly sung, and with a distinctness of intonation rarely attained by concert singers. It is to be hoped that they may be induced to give another concert here.—Jackson Daily Citizen.

The Mozart Quartette gave one of their refined and highly enjoyable Concerts last evening. The programme was choice and rendered most faithfully—many points being observed by the singers that are rarely considered. Their enunciation was markedly distinct, and words reserved their true meaning and proper expression. Their pure voice and captivating manner. Miss Brayton won all by her rich contralto and graceful bearing. The gentlemen, Mr. Koch and Mr. Beyerle gave satisfaction. Newcomb deserves every compliment for his fine piano performance. All were glad to hear the Mozarts again.—Chatham Planet.
