

shall be sold by the said Company, at public sale, at any time not less than ten days after the period for redemption; and if upon such sale of goods or stock, there shall be a surplus, after deducting the expences of sale over the payment of the money lent, such surplus shall be paid to the proprietors thereof respectively.

Twenty-first.—The board of Directors are hereby fully empowered to make such other bye laws and regulations, for the government of the affairs of the Company, and that of their officers and servants, as they, or a majority of them shall from time to time think expedient, not inconsistent with law, or these articles of Association.

Twenty-second.—This Association shall continue until the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty, and no longer; but the proprietors of two thirds of the capital stock of the Company, may by their concurring votes, at a general meeting to be called for that express purpose, revise or alter these articles, or any of them, or dissolve the Company at any prior period, provided that notice of such meeting, and of its object, shall be published in all the Provincial Newspapers for six months previous to the time appointed for such meeting; and provided also, that no revision or alteration of these articles shall subject any stockholder or stockholders to be bound beyond the amount of his, her, or their stock.

Twenty-third.—Immediately on any dissolution of this Association, effectual measures shall be taken by the Directors then existing, for closing all the con-
