

amount, and that it would be most gratefully honoured. On the receipt of this letter, Colonel Gordon sent for Mr Turner to acquaint him of it, and upon Mr T's return from Colonel Gordon to me, he expressed such joy at his friends hearing of his being in life, and felt such felicity as unfortunately deranged his understanding, and was never more himself, while he continued in that place, and I am extremely unhappy to hear that he was no wise better on his return home, or after his arrival at Philadelphia. The Indians lost in that action as follows, viz.

Mingoes or five nations some, but not known how many.

So that they did not lose above twenty men in that action.
