A Treat at St. Lawrence Market

LL VISITORS to the St. Lawrence Market can receive an extra amount of Christmas cheer and free appetizer, by a look at the HARRIS ABATTOIR display.

Without a doubt it is a wonderful sight; a unique and progressive evidence of the superiority of Canadian Meats and Products.

There are rows of superfine prize beef and exquisite lamb, beautifully dressed. Mounds and rolls of pressed, spiced and jellied pork, beef and tongue, done in the latest tempting style; then pastry to gladden any housewife's eyes, made with H. A. Brand of Shortening and Oleomargarine; Christmas cake, shortbread and fancy cakes. The decorations and fittings, carried out in the Christmassy reds and greens and our glorious Union Jacks, accompanying these offerings, make it not alone an advertisement of merit, but an educational exhibition,
