East Toronto.
The East Toronto fire brigade were the victims of a false alarm last night, rung from No. 4 box. The members and the residents made all speed to their firehouse, where they found that the reel was missing and the hose was all tangled up on the floor. The first man in thought a robbery had been committed, so he rang the fire alarm. It was discovered upon investigation that the new Balmey Beach fire brigade had taken possession of the reel, and had neglected to notify any of the officials of their appropriation, which had been granted to them at the last meeting of the Council.

the township prove successful, the saving to the municipality would be capitalised at about $20,000.

THE ALLEGED PAPER TRUST

Canadian Press Association Delegates Waited on the Minister of Finance Yesterday.

GOVERNMENT NOT VERY ZEALOUS.

Deputation Do Not Care to Be Put Up as Plaintiffs, and Want Government to Bear Cost.

Ottawa, May 22.—(Special).—A deputation consisting of Messrs. H. J. Fitzplece, M.L.A., Forest Free Press, Dan, McMillan, Cuddy, Godefrich Signal, and John A.
Cooper, Canadian Magazine, representing the Canadian Press Association, waited upon the Minister of Finance to-day in the matter of the proposed enquiry into the alleged paper combine.

So far as can be gathered from the guarded remarks of the delegation, the Government is not over zealous about prosecuting the enquiry, and would prefer to have the association appear as plaintiffs in the case, a pretty stiff contract, in view of the powerful interests to be combated.

The law provides that whenever the Government-Council has reason to believe that with regard to any article of commerce there exists a trust or combination that unduly enhances the price, or in any way unduly promotes the advantage of the manufacturers or dealers at the expense of the consumers, he may empower a judge to make a summary enquiry and report. And if he reports that such a combination exists, then the Government is to place such article on the Free List.

The common sense of the Government, therefore, justified in believing that, having presented sufficient evidence to make out a prima facie case, and having expressed their willingness to report that evidence before the commission of enquiry, the Government was bound by the statute to prosecute the investigation. It decried the language of the order-in-council authorizing the enquiry in this case makes this intent of the statute perfectly clear.

It says: "The Governor-General-in-Council has reason to believe that with regard to news and printing paper there exists a trust," etc. But it would appear that the Government is not willing to stand sponsor for the carrying out of its own legislation, now that it is to be put to practical test. They seem to hold that the interests of truth and justice would be best served by putting the Canadian Press Association forward in the position of plaintiff. To this the association decidedly objects, claiming that the Government should control the enquiry and pay all the costs in connection therewith.

The association, through its delegates, impressed upon the Minister to-day that it represents only a portion of the consumers of paper, and that it should not be called upon to bear all the costs of an investigation, which may be prolonged and expensive. The representatives claimed that the anti-combine clause in the tariff was never intended to impose on individual consumers, or small bodies of consumers, the expense of prosecuting an enquiry under that clause.

The delegation endeavored to get from the Government some proposition which would meet the needs of the case. Some of the differences between the association and the Government are said to have been cleared up as a result of the interview, but no definite understanding was arrived at. It is just possible, therefore, that unless the Government makes a more detailed proposition the Canadian Press Association will refuse to appear before the commission when it meets in Montreal on Tuesday, the 28th instant, and so the much-lauded anti-combine legislation of the Government will prove to be a dead letter after all.

SOME JOKER IN MILWAUKEE

Police There Say Toronto Police Have Wired Them Harris Tallies With Winton.

BUT INSPECTOR STARK DENIES IT.

Could Not Be Identified by Bankers.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 22.—(Special).— W. H. Harris, who several days ago tried to hoodlum Detective Wallerman, while he was being placed under arrest, is believed to have a long criminal record, and in prison. He is the man who is in correspondence with the local authorities to determine if Harris is "the man they want."

Harris closely resembled a man who recently committed a $5000 forgery on some Canadian banks at Toronto and a man who committed the extensive forgery in Cleveland. The police here have just announced that they have received a message from the Toronto authorities, saying that the description of Harris tallies closely with that of a man giving his name as G. A. Winton, who is suspected of having raised cheque in Toronto, and requesting that the prisoner be held.

It is also suspected of having operated at various points in Ohio, in which state he is believed to have served two terms in prison. If he is the man wanted, he is known under the aliases of H. W. Cherry, H. W. Showell and G. A. Winton.

It is not improbable that he may be arrested over the Toronto forgery, as authorities, but the police here can hold him for trying to pass a forged cheque on Michigan State Bank, avenue jeweler.

C. H. Harris, supposed to be George Alfred Winton, was not tried to-day, as was expected. C. C. Rogers, a commission merchant, filed charges of forgery against Harris this morning, and a preliminary trial will be given the prisoner to-morrow, in the meantime the police are investigating Harris' record.

Denial From Inspector Stark.
Inspector Stark of the local detective department, when spoken to last night with reference to the above dispatch, denied the statement that the Milwaukee authorities had been asked to hold Harris, and to hold H. W. Cherry, alias Showell, under arrest there, and wanted at Cleveland for alleged forgery. The inspector says he is satisfied that Cherry is not the man who victimized the Toronto banks. A photograph of the alleged forger was received here from Milwaukee on Monday, and when the picture was shown to the interested bank officials, they said they could not identify it as that of George Albert Winton, the cheque forger.

IS LITIGATION ENCOURAGED?

Bookbinders Bring a Counter Suit Against M. Ronch, J. P.—A Legal Mix-Up.

Stouffville, May 22.—The trouble which recently took place at Ballantyne, between the bookbinders and the bookbinders, has brought to light a peculiar state of affairs regarding the encouragement given by the authorities to litigation. The former parties were summoned to appear before the court, and the latter were advised of the court to get the advice of the Crown-Attorney, and if satisfied committed them for trial at the present session, at the same time admitting them to bail. They then went to Newmarket and laid information against the bookbinders, and notwithstanding the fact that a prima facie case had been made out against them by Squire Sanders, a warrant was issued for one of the other men, and a summons for another. In the meantime, the parties who were summoned to appear before the authorities at Newmarket, were ordered to present themselves in Toronto to give evidence before the Grand Jury, and for this reason disobeyed the mandate to attend the court at Newmarket. It is claimed that the willingness and encouragement were given to go into litigation, and if it were not for this practice, one court house would be enough for the county instead of two.

KILLED BY A HORSE.

Seventeen Months Old Baby Knocked Down and Fatally Injured.

Brantford, May 22.—John Joseph Hargan, the 17-months-old child of Mr. Owen Hargan, 32 Walnut-street, West Brantford, was fatally injured while playing on the street Tuesday afternoon, and died a few hours afterwards as the result of the injuries received. The little one was playing on the street with a dog of other children, and, unobserved by them, wandered on to the road. Some unknown person was driving past at the time, and ran into the baby. The driver could not but have seen the accident, but he did not stop to give what assistance he could. The little child was carried into his home, and passed away after a couple of hours. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

He Was Fined.

Niagara Falls, May 22.—W. L. Fenwick was fined $10 without costs by J. M. Legan to-day for selling Sunday papers on Sunday.
