Johnson's sleep had progressed sweetly until his horse, homeward bound, started over the Pennsylvania Railroad crossing. over the Pennsylvania Railroad crossing. A heavy freight train was close to the crossing. The engineer saw the sleeping man and slow-moving horse, and sounded his whistle loud enough, he said to awaken a graveyard. Johnson slumbered on and the horse refused to quicken its pace. The engine hit the wagon, tossing Johnson in the air, and when he came down he landed squarely on the pilot. He was wide awake then and excitedly clutched the headlight. When the train was stopped and the frightened engineer ran up to look at the supposed dead man. Johnson exclaimed:

"What did you want to wake me up that way for?"

The horse was uninjured, and put in its free moments eating grass on the road-

A FACT OVERLOOKED.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I was interested in reading in the Globe a short time ago an editorial on the Niagara Falls power franchises, Gen. Spencer reported last night that a match for the Palma trophy with the United States, Great Britain and very likely Canada competing, will probably be held at Ottawa, Canada, next summer.

So long as the meanest thief is guaranteed a trial by jury, a jury ought not to be denied to wage-earners. However, as the writ is usually invoked in case of a strike, the importance of the subject would be very much reduced by the adoption of a system of arbitration, because arbitration would very much reduce, even if it did not entirely remove, the probability of a strike. The struggle to secure an eight-hour day is an international struggle, and it is sure to be settled in favor of the workingmen's contentions.

The Money Question.

"Thus far I have dwelt upon subtects which may not be regarded as strictly partisan, but I am sure you will pardon me if in this presence I betray my interest in these policies for which the Democratic party stands.
