No. 13—Dutch Hand-Printed Draperies HOLLAND has developed decorative industrial design to a point which puts her in the forefront of all the world.

The fabrics we are attempting to describe embody some of the very richest work of the Dutch designers.

These rich and beautiful decorations are printed not on costly silks or other extravagant fabrics, as you might naturally suppose, but wonder of wonders—upon Cotton Sheeting—common every day cotton.

What is the result? Beauty without question, art without material distractions. For the design prints beautifully on the hard cotton surface, and the colors glow as softly as those of old-time banners.

If you want art with practicality, you have it here in those Dutch Fabrics we show this spring.

Dutch Hand-Printed Curtains, Table Covers, Bed Spreads, Cushion Tops, etc., etc. Each one complete in itself, with borders, medallions and centres in exquisite harmonies of color, and in charmingly original Dutch designs.
