KEEP EUCLID HALL, SAY ORIGINALS

Unanimously Protest Against Decision of Authorities to Move Cripples Elsewhere.

At a meeting on Friday night the following resolution was unanimously passed by the executive of the Originals' Club, who have ordered a copy to be sent to the prime minister of Canada, the prime minister of Ontario, his worship the mayor of Toronto, all local, federal and provincial members of parliament, the officials of the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment at Ottawa and Toronto, and to all other veteran organizations and newspapers in the city of Toronto.

"The executive committee of the Originals' Club, in meeting assembled, and with full authority to act for the club, have unanimously resolved to do all in their power to induce the authorities to reconsider their decision to close Euclid Hall and move the help- less returned soldiers therein to other quarters.

"We pray all to whom this resolution is addressed to use their uttermost powers in putting forth every effort to induce the authorities to leave our helpless comrades in the home they have known so long and learned to love.

"We are in sympathy with their desire to remain near their friends, we are of the opinion that no expense should be spared in making these heroes comfortable and happy.

"Certainly the reasons given by the authorities for the removal of these soldiers is paltry, and should never be considered for a moment.

"We further believe that the sym- pathies of the public for whom these heroes gave even more than life, is entirely with them in their desire to remain where they are in Euclid Hall. "We also protest against the removal of any disabled soldiers from the place or places where they are now comfortably settled near their friends, and we have in mind, particularly in this regard the removal of disabled soldiers from Newmarket to London, Ont.

"We wish to add an appreciation of the efforts made by his worship the mayor, our representatives in parlia- ment, for the action they have al- ready taken in this matter, and also the newspapers of the city for their efforts in bringing this subject before their readers and the returned men, and we add our whole strength to their efforts. We call upon all loyal citizens to enter their protest against the removal of our disabled comrades, and thereby prevent a hideous in- justice, also an appalling scandal."

CHORISTER DESERVED PRIZE.

Master Raymond Sears, one of the two Toronto boys who won in Father Flynn's contest for the Paulist choir of New York, sang the Latin version of Gounod's "O Divine Redeemer" at the offertory in St. Francis' Church yesterday. The voice of the boy singer with its beautiful high notes fully justified the selection of the leader of the Paulist choir.

Soviet Declares Amnesty For Certain Criminals

London, May 2.—A wireless despatch, received from Moscow today, says that in order to enable prisoners to participate in productive work, the soviet government has decreed an amnesty, except for those condemned as coun- ter-revolutionaries or thugs, bandits, or dangerous criminals. Persons re- leased will be divided into two cate- gories, namely, minor offenders, who will be liberated absolutely on giving an understanding to engage in useful work, and graver offenders, who will be assigned to work under the sur- veillance of local labor mobilization committees.

U. S. ZIONISTS EXPRESS THANKS TO BRITAIN

Washington, May 2.—Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador, yesterday received a delegation from the Zionist organization of America, which called to thank the British government on behalf of the Amer- ican Jews for accepting the mandate for Palestine which was awarded it by the supreme council at San Remo. The ambassador was invited to address an extraordinary convention of the Zionist organization to be held in New York on May 9.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

T. C. C. Minstrels.
The attraction for the Princess this week is one that brings back memories of the palm days of minstrelsy in the time of George Primrose, for the Canoe Club will present their seventh annual show during the entire week of May 10, with a matinee on Saturday, and in other years, Jack Strathdee, musical director, and Will G. Kelly organizer and interactor, have been in charge of the production, and they have chosen an especially brilliant cast this season from the membership of the club to form the clever corps of end men, buck and wing dancers, soloists, soft shoe dancers and chorus of over one hundred voices. The seat sale opens at the Princess on Thurs- day of this week, at 9.30 a.m.

At the Star This Week.
I. H. Herk, the eminent burlesque producer, will offer at the Star Theatre this week his brand-new show, the "Sliding Billy Watson Show, with the fa- mous comedian, "Sliding" Billy Watson, at its head. It has been Mr. Herk's purpose to produce a show which would make Mr. Watson's capabilities as a ver- satile comedian stand out as they have never stood out before. For that reason he has secured a book which is rich in its fun possibilities, and which con- tains Watson to be twice as funny as ever before. Every situation is a scream and every bit of dialog is laugh-produc- ing. There is a sprightly chorus and a cast of high calibre, which includes Lawrence Brooks, Al Dupont, Chas. Brown, Turpie, Will Rogers, Sadie Banks, Gladys Blum and Myrtle An- drews. Mr. Herk has also been most lavish in his expenditure of money for the scenic artistry is especially rich, and the costume extravaganza is on the basis of big musical comedy successes.

At Loew's This Week.
"Behind the Door," starring Robert Rosworth, at Loew's Yonge Street The- atre and Winter Garden this week, is said to be one of the strongest dramatic productions of the season. The popular musical comedy stars, Burke and Dur- kin, offering "A Boy, a Girl, and a Piano," headline the vaudeville, which also embraces Hazel Harrington and Players, in a skit, "The Squab"; Fred Rogers, in "Dark of the Moon"; Ford and Goodrich, featuring dance spec- ilarities; the Wilhoit Trio, "Just Run- ning Around, and Stars and Lea, mu- sic, jazz and syncopation.

"The Idol Dancer" at Regent.
Dancing one's way into the heart of a man is an extraordinary experience for a graceful woman if fiction writers are to be believed, but Mary, the ward of an old fisherman, widely known, in the South Sea Isles, danced her way to the knowledge of which one of two young men, the winner to be de- cided by a dance, was the one to be cup- py. This dance is one of the most fascinating scenes from the latest photo- drama production of D. W. Griffith. It is "The Idol Dancer," the feature at- traction at the Regent Theatre this week. It is a love story of the South- ern Seas that will thrill everyone who sees it. It is an idyl of primitive life as deliciously wholesome and entertain- ing as any story that has ever appeared on the screen. In addition a special prologue and musical program has been arranged by Mr. John Arthur, musical director. In the prologue, Miss Lois Landown will be featured. Unique stage settings and lighting effects will add to the pleasure of the production.

"All-of-a-Sudden Peggy."
If you were the daughter of a widow and she married an English lord, then you were wedded to the lord's younger brother, would your mother's husband be your step father or your brother-in-law? It all happens in Marguerite Clark's latest picture, "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy," at the Strand Theatre this week. Prob- ably when you see the picture, you won't worry about the relationship puzzle for it is a very jolly romantic comedy with Marguerite Clark in her most de- lightful mood. Handsome Jack Mulhall is the leading man.

Fine Film at Madison.
There will be presented at the Mad- ison Theatre today, tomorrow and Wed- nesday the exceptionally fine Vitagra- ph picture, "The Garter Girl," starring de- lightful Cordene Griffith. The story is by O. Henry, and every scene is instinc- tively his inimitable style.

THROWN FROM HANDCAR.

Brantford, May 2.—(Special).—Thrown from a handcar on the G.T.R. near Burford, John McClary, section foreman of Burford sustained con- cussion of the brain and is in a seri- ous condition.

At Royal Alexandra This Week.
The first revue which the leap year has given birth to will make its local bow at the Royal Alexandra tonight. It is "Frivolities of 1920," the initial edition of a sequence of extravagant entertainments which C. M. Anderson—but yesterday the "Broncho Billy" of the cinema—plans for the optical and spectacular refreshment of those who like to see the bubbles fizz up from the bottom of their drama, who like it nimble of knee, slick of stock- ing eloquent of shoulder, vivid of hue, gay and rapid in its tempo, as- tonishing in its variety, flippant and impertinent in its address, swagger in its carriage, ultra and immaculate in its settings, melodious, fleet of foot and modern.

"Frivolities" concerns itself with pointing a satirical finger at the so- cial, political and amusement episodes now in the public eye and with pro- viding the milliner, the modiste and the scenic artist with an opportunity to combine in a colorful revel.

The Anderson revue comes to this city practically direct from its long and spirited runs in New York, Bos- ton and Philadelphia, and at the con- clusion of its local engagement will resume its tour of the principal cities of the continent.

"The Robins Players."
With his bigger and better Robins Players, Edward H. Robins will next Monday evening inaugurate his com- ing summer season at the Royal Alexandra Theatre in Thompson Bu- chanan's after the war comedy suc- cess, "Civilian Clothes." This will be the first time "Civilian Clothes" has ever been presented by a resident company, and is in keeping with the Robins policy of "The latest and best in entertainment." The popular Rob- ins Wednesday matinee will again be featured this season as in the past. Seats will be placed on sale Thurs- day morning.

"Keeping Up With the Joneses."
Gus Hill's most successful cartoon play, "Keeping Up With the Joneses," is the attraction at the Grand Opera House this week. The comedy is mounted with beautiful scenery and gorgeous gowns and the story is based on the popular and far-reaching comics of Pop Momand. It is de- scribed as the final word in musical comedy, with novelty, dancing, sing- ing, original features, laughter, hap- piness, revelry and wit—the kind that lingers and keeps one always young and blissful. Eighteen musical num- bers are introduced. It is a typical show for the masses as well as the classes.

At the Allen.
There is a bill at the Allen this week which should appeal to every taste. In the first place, there is an excellent musical program—of Luigi Romanelli's best efforts, apen- dantly executed by the Allen premier concert orchestra. The overture will be "The Sicilian" overture to the opera by Verdi.

The feature picture will be "The River's End," James Oliver Curwood's great story of the Canadian northwest. "The River's End" has been consid- ered by many the authors most popu- lar work. It is a Canadian story, the action of the play revolving around an outlaw, his imperious wife, and the officer who captured him and died, and his struggle to find peace and happiness at "The River's End." An extraordinary love interest is woven into the play by the mutual attrac- tion of the masquerader and the sister of the man whose name he has as- sumed.

The comedy "Uneasy Feet," is bright and snappy, and presented in an en- tirely novel manner—a picture that will delight the boys and girls from 5 to 85.

Original Watson at Gayety.
Replete with brand new features, Billy Watson and his new "Parisian Whirl" comes to the Gayety Theatre this week with an offering that will doubtless cause a greater demand for seats this season than it did last season. Billy's busi- ness was the rule all week. Every- thing new is promised by Billy Watson, who has always kept his word. This season Mr. Watson and his "Paris- ian Whirl" has done away with the stereotyped ideas that in the past is found a sparkling musical comedy, in two acts and six scenes, laid in and around the famous city of Paris. The piece is said to be more than ordi- narily clever in construction and 20 musical numbers are introduced during its ac- tion. The personnel of the company is exceptionally high, among the well-known favorites being Billy Spencer (Original "Grogan"), Edgar Bixley, Pearl Lawler, Phil Walsh, Violet Buckley, Harry Howe, and Pearl Turner, and a gorgeously gownned ensemble of thirty dainty little French girls. As an added feature for this week only, Mr. Watson had engaged Rappi, the sensational violinist who has just returned from Europe, where he entertained the sol- diers of the allied forces, and who fought in the famous battles of the St. Mehl and the Argonne.

Belleville Economy League To Boost Vacant Lot Gardens

Belleville, May 2.—(Special).—The question of production in vacant lots in the city is being seriously discussed by the newly-organized Consumers' Economy League here. It is likely the coming season will see activity on vacant lots about town. The Boy Scouts and others may undertake some of the work.

Women's Canadian Club Elects Officers in Belleville

Belleville, May 2.—(Special).—The officers of the Women's Canadian Club elected at their seventh annual meet- ing are: Honorary president, Mrs. Geo. Gorman; president, Mrs. D. Lazier; vice-president, Mrs. P. S. Wil- son; secretary, Mrs. O. A. Marshall; assistant secretary, Mrs. A. A. Af- leck; treasurer, Mrs. (Rev.) Tennant; executive, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Chadwick, Mrs. Dean and Miss Fraleek.

Movement by Western Airmen To Form a Big Association

Calgary, May 2.—Calgary airmen back the Vancouver complaint against the Canadian Air Board. It is charged here that the east is taking the cream of the benefits and ignoring the west's rights. A movement is being formed to effect a western association, embrac- ing Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Regina, Moose Jaw, Edmonton, Calgary, Leth- bridge, Vancouver and Victoria. It is planned to form this association first, and then try to arrange a satisfactory Dominion amalgamation.
