This is The Safest Store From Which to Buy Your HOSIERY
 Nothing is more disappointing than a poor quality of hosiery, and there are few things in which it is so difficult for anyone but an expert to distinguish the worthy from the unworthy.
 We protect the patrons of our hosiery department from dissatisfaction by handling only qualities that we know to be trustworthy. We buy from only reliable makers, and subject every purchase to a minute examination, rejecting every pair of stockings that does not come up to the high standard we've set for ourselves.
 We have stockings for as little as 25c, and for as much as $1.50. Every pair from the lowest to the highest price is a thoroughly good quality, which is certain to prove eminently satisfactory.
 You'll find a complete stock of light and medium weights here, in all sizes.

MORE FROM ST. JOHN FOR OVERSEAS POSTS
 Col. Armstrong Has Call For Twenty Men - Today With the Military Units Here

Twenty more men were wanted from St. John for army service in England. Instructions have been received by Lieut. Col. B. H. Armstrong to enroll about that number here and send them forward to St. John's Quebec, to the military school there for a short training course. The men wanted are some who have an understanding of horses, the intention being to establish a Canadian remount depot in some part of England. Shoeing smiths are especially asked for. Col. Armstrong will be pleased to receive the names of volunteers.

Arrivals at Christopher Cove for the Canadian Railway Construction Corps have brought five muster close to 260. Lieut. Col. Ramsay is now established at the Cove, where Major Richardson, Captain Grant and Captain Wellwood have been located nearly a month making ready with the assistance of the early recruits, for the arrival of the main body. Other officers arrived in the city today for the corps, including Lieut. Lewis of Winnipeg (attached), Lieut. Ramsey, Lieut. Murray and Major LeFevre, of Montreal.

Training
 The programme today consisted of the ordinary routine of drill with the companies of the Divisional Train. The ordinary routine of drill with the companies of "A" and "B" companies at the rifle range. With the Construction Corps the recruits are being given training in railway activities because of the strict eliminating process which marked the enrollment. Physical and company drill were continued today.

THE 53th
 The 53th ranks are being gradually filled. About ten more men were added this morning. Captain Gardner, medical officer returned today from Fredericton, where he had been conducting a physical examination of recruits. The quarters of the battalions in the new Petting warehouse are now completed, the work having been done by the men of Commissioner Russell's department, and appreciation for the courtesy has been expressed by Lieut. BEDS FOR OUR WOUNDED
 Ladies to Raise $2,000 to Equip Ward in Dr. MacLaren's Hospital - Proposal of Brunswick Chapter

To equip a ward in Dr. MacLaren's hospital where the New Brunswick wounded will be treated, is surely an object which will appeal to patriotic and generous St. John. The ladies of the Brunswick Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, have decided to undertake to equip a new Brunswick ward in this hospital, and they are asking that subscriptions be sent to the secretary, Mrs. (Dr.) J. H. Allingham, Fairville, or the treasurer, Mrs. Hetherington, Provincial Hospital.

POLICE COURT
 In the police court this morning one man arrested on a drunkenness charge was remanded, another was fined $8 or two months in jail, and a third was fined $8 or thirty days in jail.
 Kenneth Morris, arrested last night by the chief constable on a charge of using profane language and also charged with refusing to move when ordered by the police, was remanded.
 Mrs. David Jones, Marsh road, said her husband had refused to support her and had also threatened to knock out her brains. She said she did not wish to prosecute him but wanted him bound over to keep the peace. She said that she was in destitute circumstances.
 Trouble arose recently between them after her husband had a dispute with his step-son. It was then, she said, he threatened to do her bodily harm. The defendant was remanded in order to have him examined by Doctor Christie.

NORTH END BOYS DO A GOOD THING
 Two boys, Ralph Miller and Hugh Boyce, of Chesley street, who were interested in the great children's parade last week, and wished to give some impression to their feeling of regard for Superintendent C. D. Howard of the Playground Association, arranged an entertainment for yesterday afternoon. It was held in a carriage house. These two boys operated a toy moving picture machine, Philip Graman sang solos and he and his brother James gave a boxing exhibition, and Mary Crowley and Anna McGarrigle gave readings. George Gregory looked after the advertising. The affair was a great success. The admission was only five cents, but the sum of five dollars was secured and given today to Superintendent Howard to be added to the funds of the association.

SOON BACK TO DESK
 Clarence Ward, of the city hall staff, who celebrated his seventy-eighth birthday this week is still confined to the house as the result of an illness from which he has suffered since last summer. But his friends will be glad to know that he is improving and hopes soon to be able to return to his desk. His friends hope to see him enjoy many more anniversaries in better health than he has experienced this year.

SHELL EXPLODED ONLY 15 FEET AWAY
 Fairville Soldier Writes of a Close Call

TERRIFIC BOMBARDMENT
 George A. Dalzell's Letter From the Front Says the Life is Not By Any Means All Hardship

George A. Dalzell, a British reservist, formerly with the artillery, and now attached to the telephone section on the firing line in France, has written another interesting letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Dalzell, of Prospect street, Fairville. The letter is dated March 21, but no place is mentioned.
 "I am still in the land of the living," he writes, "and feeling well, though there have been lively times here all of last week, and on at least one occasion I had a close call."
 "At 5 o'clock on last Sunday the Germans opened a bombardment, using hundreds of guns, and the sight was certainly grand, the whole place alight with bursting shells, accompanied by the roar which is music to the artilleryman. You no doubt will read all about it in the papers, but it was my privilege to see and hear at first hand."
 "We have been fairly quiet today with the exception of dozens of aeroplanes flying over the town and dropping bombs as a reminder. A few heavy shells were also dropped into the town, and a few odd men killed. One of the aeroplanes flying well up in the air, dropped a bomb at our house which, being painted white and set apart, had proved an attractive mark, but the thrower missed his mark by exactly fifteen feet, the bomb dropping in the garden. There were no casualties."
 "These bombs make an awful noise, and we could not hear for fully ten minutes after the explosion. I was shaving at the time and nearly cut myself. (What death only fifteen feet away, I suppose it could be called a close shave)."
 "The colonel watched the flight of the bomb all the way down, and when the earth and stones, which had been cast into the air by the force of explosion, had subsided, we all scrambled into the hole looking for curios."
 "We rose on the eighth week on the firing line, and I like it better every day. Spring weather has now favored us in most respects, the roads are all drying up, so we will soon be advancing and drive the Germans back into their own country."
 "I have been particularly struck with the tone of your letters since I have been at the front. You say you don't like to think of me lying on the hard, cold ground. Just think for a minute, and you will realize that falling up there is harder than soldiering. What will you say when I tell you we have a spring bed to sleep on, two easy chairs for my use besides a comfortable sofa, an oak cabinet to store my kit and eating utensils in, and best of all a house-like nature, pretty curtains on the windows. Our bill of fare is excellent, including ham and eggs for breakfast, roast beef, vegetables and fixings for dinner, and a supper, along similar lines.
 "The men at leisure play skat and other games. Of course we are shelled pretty often when out repairing wires or fixing up connections on trees, when the enemy can easily spot you, but we get used to it, and since the Germans rarely hit anyone, why should we worry?"

SUPPORT MOVEMENT TO CLOSE SALOONS IN THE TIME OF WAR
 Fairville Baptist Church Action - Lancaster Red Cross Contributes Funds For Hospital Bed

On last Friday evening a business meeting of the Fairville Baptist Church a vote on the proposed legislation to prohibit the sale of liquor in New Brunswick during the war, was carried unanimously.
 On Sunday evening special Easter music was rendered, and there was an exceptionally large congregation, the annual secretary to assist in accompanying the people.
 The liquor matter was again put to the public test by Rev. P. H. Hayward and an enthusiastic standing vote taken in the affirmative. The action of the congregation will be reported to Premier Clarke by Rev. Mr. Hayward. Individual members were also urged to write personal letters to the premier.
 At the service on Sunday evening baptism was administered to sixteen persons, the one of the Red Cross Society of Lancaster last evening, the president, Mrs. J. V. Anglin, presided, and there were about fifty members present.
 The first part of the evening was devoted to the usual busy occupations of sewing and knitting for soldiers. It was decided to donate a bed to the base hospital at a cost of $80. A. H. Pitt-Randolph contributed $10 toward this worthy cause and the remaining $40 will come from the funds of the society.
 The ladies agreed that during house cleaning time it would be better to suspend the alternate afternoon meetings, so from now until further notice, meetings will be on Monday evenings.
 Mrs. Anglin reported that the articles sent by this society to the receiving depot in St. John were most satisfactory. The thoroughness of the work done and attention to detail had been most favorably commented upon. "An effort will be made to increase the output this month."
 A social time was pleasantly spent. There were musical numbers by Mrs. Murray Long, Mrs. J. H. Roche and Miss Helen Gregory; Miss Bessie Compton read the "Siege of Lucknow" very effectively. Refreshments were served.

NOVELTY SHOWER
 Last evening the members of the oldest Primary Bible Class, with their teachers, officers, and pastor of the Fairville Baptist Sunday school, assembled at the home of their treasurer, Miss Hattie Thorne, tendering her a novelty shower in anticipation of a coming nuptial event in which she will be a principal. Music and games were enjoyed, refreshments served and best wishes extended.
