THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, SAINT JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1926

START IS MADE FOR KIWANIS CLUB HERE

Temporary Organization is Begun—Dr. L. M. Curran is Acting President

What is known as a temporary Kiwanis Club was formed here on Saturday evening at a dinner at the Admiral Beatty hotel when about 20 prominent citizens of Saint John were present. Dr. L. M. Curran was named as temporary president and F. J. Hodgson, secretary-treasurer. Those present at the meeting became the sponsors for the new club and will get other representative citizens interested. Application also was made for a charter for the club.

Another meeting will be held tomorrow night. The members here will be limited to about 50 for the present, and E. Elmore, field representative.

RETURNS TO HALIFAX.
Alexander W. Robb, of the Halifax Herald and Mail executive staff, returned home today after spending the week-end in Saint John. Mr. Robb came to the city on Saturday to pay respects of the Halifax Herald and Mail to the memory of the late editor of the Saint John Globe, F. B. Ellis, whose funeral took place Saturday afternoon. While here Mr. Robb visited his mother at the home of John McGowan. Mr. Robb's daughter accompanied him.

IS WELCOMED.
Rev. Harry Clark, former pastor of Portland United Church, now of St. Andrews United Church, in Halifax, left for the city on the noon train. He took part in the anniversary services at Centenary yesterday. Rev. Mr. Clark was warmly welcomed by many former parishioners and friends among

Funerals

Mrs. James Lane.
The funeral of Mrs. James Lane was held Saturday morning from 124 King street east, to the Cathedral for high mass of requiem by Rev. Dr. Roy M. McDonald. Rev. Fr. Mullins, C.S.S.H., was in the sanctuary. Relatives were pall bearers, and interment was in the new Catholic cemetery. Prayers at the grave were read by Rev. C. J. Carroll. Many spiritual offerings were received.

BARONET WILL BE IN CITY ON SUNDAY

Sir Francis and Lady MacNaughton Are Passengers on S. S. Montclair

Sir Francis MacNaughton, Bart., and Lady MacNaughton are among the passengers on the Canadian Pacific steamer Montclair, which is expected here next Sunday from Glasgow, via Belfast and Greenock.
