JOHN IRVIN AT THE EVERY DAY CLUB Makes Strong Plea for Children's Aid Society - Comparison of Interest In an admirable address at the Every Day Club last evening John Irvin, K. C., of Brantford, paid a very high tribute to the citizens of St. John for what had been accomplished in past years and made a very strong plea for the addition of a Children's Aid Society with the law behind it, as a necessary addition to the splendid institutions related to the humanities which are already in existence. Mr. Irvin contrasted the St. John of forty years ago with that of today, and noted the obstacles overcome, the foresight which planned for years ahead and provided the funds to produce the facilities for the great traffic of the present time. He predicted a great future for the city, as one of the imperial gates through which would flow the commerce of a great dominion. Turning then to the institutions provided so generously for the spiritual, moral and intellectual welfare of the people, Mr. Irvin went on to speak of the various organizations, institutions, hospitals and homes designed to meet the special needs of the suffering, and said that to these should be added one more, a Children's Aid Society having behind it the power of law. He gave a clear definition of a neglected child, told of the law in force in Nova Scotia, pointed out how essential it was for effective work in securing for neglected children a fair start in life, and appealed to his hearers to give their sympathy and help in securing such a law for New Brunswick. In this connection he emphasized the power of thought. When many people are thinking of the same thing they are creating a force which produces results. All the great revolutions in the world were caused by thought, and there never was a time in the world's history when thought was producing so many splendid agencies for man's betterment. Legislation and organization for child protection was one of them, and the speaker made an eloquent plea for the boys and for sympathy and support for the Every Day Club in its work. The president of the club, noting the fact that eighteen boys were grouped together near the platform, observed that on Friday evening he had seen eighteen larger boys in the Boys' Industrial Home. He suggested that more interest might well be taken in the lads before they arrive at the door of the reformatory. C. S. Humpers referred briefly to some boys who had been influenced for good in the club, and the opportunity afforded for helpfulness to the many who spent their evenings in the room. As many as fifty were there of an evening, besides thirty or more young men. Two solos were sung by George E. Knight, and one by Elmer A. Bolding. Mr. Knight will be the speaker next Sunday evening. On Wednesday evening there will be a special entertainment for the boys of the club.
