MES. YOUNG'S CASE.

A STRANGE CASE THAT BAF-FLED DOCTORS.

None of Her Friends Believed She Could Recover and Her Case Has Excited Great Interest.

has caused a great deal of talk among those who are acquainted with her. Mrs. Young is now in her seventy-eighth year, and is quite vigorous for a wonan of that age. There years ago she took a chill, which appeared to affect her whole, system. Her lower limbs and body welled to such an extent that she could scarcely move them. Her stomach became so disordered that her could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that the could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is he could not take solid food, and her heart flutered so violently that is her to me the flute of the day was ended, — t THE BURNET BERNET
