

CLEARANCE SALE

TO make room for our Spring and Summer Goods, which will soon be here, we will sell the following goods at a very slight advance over cost. The goods are all right, but we must have the room, so swing in and make good interest on your money.

Such Goods as Parlor and Cylinder Stoves, Stove Backs, Skates, Handsleds, Horse Halters, Skate Straps, Snow Shovels, and other Winter Goods must go.

We would have you first and always to believe that we advertise simply and only what we intend to do. We will not knowingly make any false statements. So, if you want any of these Goods and want them at a low price, now is YOUR CHANCE.

SHAW & DIBBLE, HARDWARE, STOVES AND TINWARE.

P. S.—Spectacles and Eyeglasses Fitted Scientifically.

Local News.

AND OTHER MATTERS

Dominion parliament will open on March 16th.

There are several cases of diphtheria in Woodstock.

Newfoundland is trying to arrange a trade treaty with the United States.

The C. P. R. has ordered fourteen heavy Baldwin engines from the United States.

The United States has passed a law to admit seed wheat from Canada free of duty.

Rev. J. J. Barnes, of Waterville, wishes to sell a wellbred newmilch cow. Enquire of him for particulars.

The United States has stopped serving rations of malt or alcoholic liquors to any men enlisted in the navy.

A decision in the Armstrong divorce case may be given on March 9th, when Judge Van Wart will hold divorce court at Fredericton.

Hunter and Crossly are at present conducting revival services in St. Johns, Nfld. It is said they are meeting with their usual success.

The Band is practicing a brand new piece, "The Metropolitan Police" in which the familiar air of "Banks of the Wabash" is a pleasing feature.

Geo. Hurd, a young man of Perham, Aroostook Co., shot himself in the head the other day. Death was instantaneous. He was suffering from grip and it is supposed the rash act was committed while in a state of temporary insanity.

Of the 4,000,000 bushels of potatoes raised last year in Aroostook Co. 2,400,000 bushels have been shipped to other parts of the States for seed.

Mr. Wm. Andrews accompanied by Bird Kimball and wife attended the holiness Convention at Hartland, N. B., Feb. 16 to 20.—Ft. Fairfield Leader.

At this time of the year many subscriptions expire. We would request subscribers to kindly have a care that their accounts do not get too far in arrears.

Little Willie Stevens of Somerville, while playing with the boys around the school house fell and wrenched his hip badly. Medical aid was sought of Dr. Estey.

John Chapman, a much respected resident of Lower Kincardine, Vic. Co. died a couple of weeks ago, leaving a wife and six children in destitute circumstances.

A small child of Mr. Patrick Halfpenny today captured a butterfly on the window. It probably came out during the heat of the recent election.—Moncton Transcript.

One day last week as C. J. Connolly was hauling a load of hay from Windsor, the load slewed and he was thrown from it receiving injuries that laid him up for several days.

That much talked of snow-locomotive inaugurated by A. Cushing & Co. in their lumbering operations on the head waters of the St. John, has been set up and so far is a success.

A sweet little blue violet, with the odor of the meadow clinging to its delicate petals, was laid upon the editorial desk on Friday by a lady friend. It was a beautiful reminder of Spring—a veritable Spring poem.—St. Andrews Beacon.

Try "Lion Brand," the fine Ceylon Tea, for sale at Carr's.—tf.

Miss Stella Dalling, the owner of the wellknown voice of the central telephone office, wishes to thank her friends, the Liberals, for a purse of money given for services rendered on Saturday evening—election day.

Of all the cases of grip in Hartland, and notwithstanding the fatalities elsewhere, no death has occurred either directly or indirectly from it in Hartland. All those previously reported as being ill are recovering.

Mrs. Nancy Moore wishes to thank the Order of Foresters for the prompt payment of her late husband's claim ($1,050), and she also wishes to tender her thanks to Court Florenceville for the kindness of the members to her in her affliction.

On Monday evening next, at 7.30 an old fashioned missionary meeting will be held in the Methodist church. Rev. H. D. Marr and Rev. W. H. Spargo will be among the speakers of the evening. A good time is expected. All are welcome.

A prominent lumber merchant is authority for the statement that the lumber cut this winter at the head waters of the St. John river will exceed the quantity estimated at the early part of the season by 10 to 15 per cent. It will, according to this gentleman, aggregate 140,000,000 feet.

Mrs. Alexander G. Lindsay, of Highlands, parish of Kent, died on Saturday last of relapse of the grip. She was a daughter of James Wilson who came to Glassville with his family about the time that Rev. M. Glass brought out the Glassville colony. Deceased leaves two sons and five daughters.

A second class female teacher is wanted for district No. 1½ parish of Kent and Peel, post office, Bristol. Such a teacher is also wanted at Bigger Ridge, post office, Foreston. Both are wanted to begin April 1st.

PERSONAL NEWS.

Mrs. John Adair of Cloverdale is seriously ill.

Anderson Lewis of Peel was in the village on Tuesday.

Alfred R. Turner of Florenceville was in the village on Tuesday.

S. S. Miller made a trip to Woodstock on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. A. Harmon of Peel was in the village on Tuesday.

Allan Greer of Mount Pleasant was in Hartland on Tuesday.

Mrs. Campbell is quite ill at the residence of her son A. F. Campbell.

Miss Eva Snow of Rosedale has been visiting her cousin Miss Blanche Kelly.

A. A. Belyea of Coldstream made the Advertiser a pleasant call on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Frost of South Knowlesville was in the village on Tuesday.

Mrs. I. B. Curtis who has been visiting friends at Fredericton returned home Monday.

Harry Hunter of the "Hartland Farmer's Exchange" has been quite ill at his home at Riverbank.

H. D. Keswich of St. Leonards is spending a few days at his old home here. He has been ill of la grippe.

B. W. Morgan left on Wednesday to take charge of the school at Salt Springs, Kings Co. which he has been appointed to by the Maritime Teachers' Agency.

Thomas Anderson of Wakefield was in the village on Tuesday soliciting subscriptions for a book entitled "Easy Steps for Little Feet," being a series of little stories for children.