THE FLYING SWEDS.

If J. Bolin, the great Swedish half-miler, comes over to America this year as is practically certain, a whole group of American middle-distance men will be looking for his game. One man in particular, "Ted" Meredith, will put his best efforts into getting into shape to pay off old debts. "Ted" was not in his best condition when Bolin trimmed him in Sweden and Norway last fall. If "Ted" can attain his form of last spring, the flying Swede will have to beat world's records to give "Ted" his dust. And if Meredith is not in shape, there are others who will gladly take up the task of measuring strides with Bolin.

—Don Scott, the A. A. U. champion, who already is close upon Meredith's record and is believed to be still coming; Dave Caldwell, who has a habit of showing amazing speed; Larry Scudder of Penn., of whom Lawson Robertson expects great things this year; Joe Higgins, the former Holy Cross speedster; Earl Eby, the Penn. freshman; Homer Baker, the 1914 international champion, and others. New men are cropping out all the time. Bill Bingham and Tom Halpin might also like to enter the lists.
