

CANADIANS AT FRONT ARE NOT IN FEAR OF DEATH

Stewart Lyon Tells of Interesting Conversations he Had with Chaplains who Attended Dying—Men Understand the Sign of the Cross.

By Stewart Lyon.
(Canadian Press Correspondent with the Canadian Forces.)
Canadian Headquarters, France—How do Canada's sons out here face death when it comes?
Everyone knows what honor they have brought to the Dominion by their courage in battle and their cheerfulness and adaptability in camp and field.
What of the last and greatest test of manhood; the inevitable encounter that awaits us all, from which only the spirit can hope to emerge victorious?

Chaplains of the Canadian Corps with whom I have spoken say without hesitation that Canada's sons who pass out, in the field and in the ambulances and hospitals immediately behind the front, die as bravely as they fight.

No Fear of Death
"I have yet to hear one of these mortally wounded men express fear of death," said a chaplain who has knelt in the field by the side of dying men wherever Canadians have fought—in the Ypres Salient, on the Somme, at Verdun and who wears the ribbon of the Military Cross—given for conspicuous valor. "Most of them," he ended, "have thought of the other side as men will who are confronted daily by death in many turns. In most cases mortally wounded men are mentally alert when they go out. I recall one young fellow with whom I was speaking of spiritual things—both of us knowing that he had but a few minutes to live—saying in answer to my assurance that it was into God's world he was passing:
"It will be most interesting to me to compare it with this."

Know the Cross
"Many of the men have little knowledge of creeds and religious observances, but I have met but one who did not understand the significance of the Cross. He had never been to Sunday school and it is on the lessons learnt there most of the men lean at the end.
"They are not given to self pity.
Thoughts of home and of the folk hations are also supplied free of cost from the cinema and canteen surplus.

The total turnover of this remarkably useful social service department conducted by the Canadian chaplains was over $100,000 in the three months ended December 31. The profits were about $100,000 and all of them go back to the troops in the form of comforts.
The cinema are used also in charitable work. Last Sunday at a small town behind the front over $125 were raised by a cinema show for the war widows and orphans of the town. This on a five-cent admission fee was a remarkable result.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL
DEAFNESS AND HEAD
NOISES.
If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parment (double strength), and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.
This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should be open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.
Any druggist can supply you, or a bottle will be sent on request of 75c. postal note or money order. Address International Laboratories, 74 St. Antonio St., Montreal, Canada.
