

clothes,

Sport Skirts,
Variety

Especially pleasing in a design and color
all white with all ideas in pocket, belt, and skirt design and in stripes and solid variety of white
Bedford cord skirts
$1.29 to $8

the last word in fashion, rose, $36.50

Pongee or White large sailor collar
$5.50 to $5.50

in Tweed, Covert
many pretty styles
$0.00 to $22.50

ing St.

otchky Skin

a time you have looked into and wished that your skin like other people that you without a blemish. This is for you for the skin.
D. D. the lotion of healing and wake up in the morning them gone. E. Clinton Brown, St. John.

D. D. Liquid Wash

uites

and

y Carriages

n, Limited

Social Notes of the Week

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, May 18.—Mrs. P. B. Black returned to her home in Sackville on Friday of last week, having spent a few days in town guest of His Honor Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Wood.

Mrs. Percy Chestnut returned from St. John on Saturday.

Sergeant Weldon Carter, of the 7th Battery, Winnipeg, was visiting his parents Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Carter, two weeks before going to camp at Petawawa.

Mrs. George S. Howie has invitations out for an afternoon tea on Friday in honor of Mrs. Ernest Smith, of Shediac.

Mrs. William Clements and daughter Anna arrived from California on Saturday, and will remain in Fredericton for some time.

On Friday of last week Mrs. Alexander J. Thompson was hostess at a small but enjoyable bridge party. Among the guests were Mrs. T. C. Allen, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. Charles Allen, Mrs. J. J. Fraser Winslow, Miss Stopford, Miss Mary Harrison, Miss Nellie Babbitt.

On Monday evening Mrs. C. Fred Chestnut entertained informally at bridge in honor of Mrs. Howie, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harold McMurray.

Major and Mrs. D. Allen Laurie returned on Saturday from Halifax.

On Wednesday afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Jones entertained at a very enjoyable afternoon tea for the graduating class of U. N. B. and their friends. The tea table at which Mrs. W. S. Carter and Mrs. John Stephens presided was decorated with daffodils and yellow orchids. Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Stiles, Mrs. Popplestone, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Baird, Mrs. Anderson, and Miss Gibson. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Bridges, Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Hay, Jack Coy, Mr. and Mrs. Farn, Dr. and Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Clarence Stevens, Miss Royce Carter, Miss Hunter, Miss Fleming, St. John, Mrs. Burchell, the Misses Beverly, Mr. McLaine, Sgt. Weldon Carter and others.

Miss Elsie Jardine, of Shediac, in the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ernest Smith, at the Queen Hotel.

Friends of Miss Frances Fish, a graduate of the U. N. B., will be interested in hearing that she has the distinction of leading her class of second year students at the Dalhousie Law School, in no less than four subjects, sales, accounts, partnership and procedure, while she was second in two other examinations, insurance and wills and administrations. Miss Fish also secured first division honors in equity bills and notes and evidence.

Mrs. Hildebrand, of Chatham, is the guest of Mrs. W. B. Farrell, St. John street.

A most successful patriotic tea was held on Friday last in the gymnasium of the Provincial Normal School by the students. The tea table, in the form of a cross, was beautifully decorated with crimson roses, and was presided over by Mrs. W. S. Carter, Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. Pesscock and the Countess of Ashburnham. During the afternoon the bird houses, made by the students were exhibited. There were many styles and shapes, according to the habits of the various birds, the swallows, woodpeckers, wrens and martins. This work is the first of its kind that has been attempted by the students, and indeed was a great credit to them. Governor and Mrs. Wood and many of the members and their wives were present.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Ketchum was hostess at a delightful tea. The tea table centered with yellow iris, was presided over by Mrs. T. B. Winslow and Mrs. Adam Cameron. Those assisting with the refreshments were: Mrs. John Stephens, Miss Grace Winslow, Miss Babbitt and Miss Taylor. Among the guests were Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. and Mrs. Hebbington, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Miss Jardine, Miss Smith, Mrs. Byrne, Mrs. T. Carleton Allen, Mrs. Ross Thompson, Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, St. John, Mrs. Burchell, Mrs. McRae, Mrs. Howie, Mrs. A. J. Thompson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. McCaffrey, Mrs. Charlie Allen, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. W. C. Crockett, Mrs. Lee Babbitt, Mrs. Vansell, Mrs. Thomas Mrs. Slipp Mrs. P. C. Holden, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Harry Chestnut, Mrs. Stieve, Mrs. McGeehan, Mrs. W. T. Chestnut, Mrs. O. B. Crockett, Mrs. Tweedie, Mrs. Giles, Mrs. Lawson, Miss Harrison, the Countess of Ashburnham, Mrs. Miller, Miss McLaughlin, Mrs. S. Nell, Mrs. Harold Babbitt and Edith Gregory.

Lieut. Atwood Bridges is in the city for the U. N. B. ancones.

Mrs. C. J. Osman, of Hillsboro, returned home on Saturday.

The concert given by the Kilties Koneer Company last Friday evening for the benefit of the returned men was a most successful one. The house was packed by a very appreciative audience and all did their various parts well. From a financial standpoint it was shown that the Fredericton people are most willing and ready to assist this organization. The members of the government were most generous in presenting the Normal School students with tickets.

Mr. Leonard McLaine left on Thursday for St. John.

Major and Mrs. D. Allen Laurie returned on Saturday from Halifax.

On Wednesday afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Jones entertained at a very enjoyable afternoon tea for the graduating class of U. N. B. and their friends. The tea table at which Mrs. W. S. Carter and Mrs. John Stephens presided was decorated with daffodils and yellow orchids. Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Stiles, Mrs. Popplestone, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Baird, Mrs. Anderson, and Miss Gibson. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Bridges, Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Hay, Jack Coy, Mr. and Mrs. Farn, Dr. and Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Clarence Stevens, Miss Royce Carter, Miss Hunter, Miss Fleming, St. John, Mrs. Burchell, the Misses Beverly, Mr. McLaine, Sgt. Weldon Carter and others.

Miss Elsie Jardine, of Shediac, in the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ernest Smith, at the Queen Hotel.

Friends of Miss Frances Fish, a graduate of the U. N. B., will be interested in hearing that she has the distinction of leading her class of second year students at the Dalhousie Law School, in no less than four subjects, sales, accounts, partnership and procedure, while she was second in two other examinations, insurance and wills and administrations. Miss Fish also secured first division honors in equity bills and notes and evidence.

Mrs. Hildebrand, of Chatham, is the guest of Mrs. W. B. Farrell, St. John street.

A most successful patriotic tea was held on Friday last in the gymnasium of the Provincial Normal School by the students. The tea table, in the form of a cross, was beautifully decorated with crimson roses, and was presided over by Mrs. W. S. Carter, Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. Pesscock and the Countess of Ashburnham. During the afternoon the bird houses, made by the students were exhibited. There were many styles and shapes, according to the habits of the various birds, the swallows, woodpeckers, wrens and martins. This work is the first of its kind that has been attempted by the students, and indeed was a great credit to them. Governor and Mrs. Wood and many of the members and their wives were present.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Ketchum was hostess at a delightful tea. The tea table centered with yellow iris, was presided over by Mrs. T. B. Winslow and Mrs. Adam Cameron. Those assisting with the refreshments were: Mrs. John Stephens, Miss Grace Winslow, Miss Babbitt and Miss Taylor. Among the guests were Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. and Mrs. Hebbington, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Miss Jardine, Miss Smith, Mrs. Byrne, Mrs. T. Carleton Allen, Mrs. Ross Thompson, Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, St. John, Mrs. Burchell, Mrs. McRae, Mrs. Howie, Mrs. A. J. Thompson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. McCaffrey, Mrs. Charlie Allen, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. W. C. Crockett, Mrs. Lee Babbitt, Mrs. Vansell, Mrs. Thomas Mrs. Slipp Mrs. P. C. Holden, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Harry Chestnut, Mrs. Stieve, Mrs. McGeehan, Mrs. W. T. Chestnut, Mrs. O. B. Crockett, Mrs. Tweedie, Mrs. Giles, Mrs. Lawson, Miss Harrison, the Countess of Ashburnham, Mrs. Miller, Miss McLaughlin, Mrs. S. Nell, Mrs. Harold Babbitt and Edith Gregory.

Lieut. Atwood Bridges is in the city for the U. N. B. ancones.

Mrs. C. J. Osman, of Hillsboro, returned home on Saturday.

The concert given by the Kilties Koneer Company last Friday evening for the benefit of the returned men was a most successful one. The house was packed by a very appreciative audience and all did their various parts well. From a financial standpoint it was shown that the Fredericton people are most willing and ready to assist this organization. The members of the government were most generous in presenting the Normal School students with tickets.

Mr. Leonard McLaine left on Thursday for St. John.

Major and Mrs. D. Allen Laurie returned on Saturday from Halifax.

On Wednesday afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Jones entertained at a very enjoyable afternoon tea for the graduating class of U. N. B. and their friends. The tea table at which Mrs. W. S. Carter and Mrs. John Stephens presided was decorated with daffodils and yellow orchids. Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Stiles, Mrs. Popplestone, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Baird, Mrs. Anderson, and Miss Gibson. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Bridges, Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Hay, Jack Coy, Mr. and Mrs. Farn, Dr. and Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Clarence Stevens, Miss Royce Carter, Miss Hunter, Miss Fleming, St. John, Mrs. Burchell, the Misses Beverly, Mr. McLaine, Sgt. Weldon Carter and others.

Miss Elsie Jardine, of Shediac, in the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ernest Smith, at the Queen Hotel.

Friends of Miss Frances Fish, a graduate of the U. N. B., will be interested in hearing that she has the distinction of leading her class of second year students at the Dalhousie Law School, in no less than four subjects, sales, accounts, partnership and procedure, while she was second in two other examinations, insurance and wills and administrations. Miss Fish also secured first division honors in equity bills and notes and evidence.

Mrs. Hildebrand, of Chatham, is the guest of Mrs. W. B. Farrell, St. John street.

A most successful patriotic tea was held on Friday last in the gymnasium of the Provincial Normal School by the students. The tea table, in the form of a cross, was beautifully decorated with crimson roses, and was presided over by Mrs. W. S. Carter, Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. Pesscock and the Countess of Ashburnham. During the afternoon the bird houses, made by the students were exhibited. There were many styles and shapes, according to the habits of the various birds, the swallows, woodpeckers, wrens and martins. This work is the first of its kind that has been attempted by the students, and indeed was a great credit to them. Governor and Mrs. Wood and many of the members and their wives were present.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Ketchum was hostess at a delightful tea. The tea table centered with yellow iris, was presided over by Mrs. T. B. Winslow and Mrs. Adam Cameron. Those assisting with the refreshments were: Mrs. John Stephens, Miss Grace Winslow, Miss Babbitt and Miss Taylor. Among the guests were Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. and Mrs. Hebbington, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Miss Jardine, Miss Smith, Mrs. Byrne, Mrs. T. Carleton Allen, Mrs. Ross Thompson, Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, St. John, Mrs. Burchell, Mrs. McRae, Mrs. Howie, Mrs. A. J. Thompson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. McCaffrey, Mrs. Charlie Allen, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. W. C. Crockett, Mrs. Lee Babbitt, Mrs. Vansell, Mrs. Thomas Mrs. Slipp Mrs. P. C. Holden, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Harry Chestnut, Mrs. Stieve, Mrs. McGeehan, Mrs. W. T. Chestnut, Mrs. O. B. Crockett, Mrs. Tweedie, Mrs. Giles, Mrs. Lawson, Miss Harrison, the Countess of Ashburnham, Mrs. Miller, Miss McLaughlin, Mrs. S. Nell, Mrs. Harold Babbitt and Edith Gregory.

Lieut. Atwood Bridges is in the city for the U. N. B. ancones.

Mrs. C. J. Osman, of Hillsboro, returned home on Saturday.

The concert given by the Kilties Koneer Company last Friday evening for the benefit of the returned men was a most successful one. The house was packed by a very appreciative audience and all did their various parts well. From a financial standpoint it was shown that the Fredericton people are most willing and ready to assist this organization. The members of the government were most generous in presenting the Normal School students with tickets.

Mr. Leonard McLaine left on Thursday for St. John.

Major and Mrs. D. Allen Laurie returned on Saturday from Halifax.

On Wednesday afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Jones entertained at a very enjoyable afternoon tea for the graduating class of U. N. B. and their friends. The tea table at which Mrs. W. S. Carter and Mrs. John Stephens presided was decorated with daffodils and yellow orchids. Assisting with the refreshments were Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Stiles, Mrs. Popplestone, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Baird, Mrs. Anderson, and Miss Gibson. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Bridges, Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Hay, Jack Coy, Mr. and Mrs. Farn, Dr. and Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Clarence Stevens, Miss Royce Carter, Miss Hunter, Miss Fleming, St. John, Mrs. Burchell, the Misses Beverly, Mr. McLaine, Sgt. Weldon Carter and others.

Miss Elsie Jardine, of Shediac, in the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Ernest Smith, at the Queen Hotel.

Friends of Miss Frances Fish, a graduate of the U. N. B., will be interested in hearing that she has the distinction of leading her class of second year students at the Dalhousie Law School, in no less than four subjects, sales, accounts, partnership and procedure, while she was second in two other examinations, insurance and wills and administrations. Miss Fish also secured first division honors in equity bills and notes and evidence.

Mrs. Hildebrand, of Chatham, is the guest of Mrs. W. B. Farrell, St. John street.

A most successful patriotic tea was held on Friday last in the gymnasium of the Provincial Normal School by the students. The tea table, in the form of a cross, was beautifully decorated with crimson roses, and was presided over by Mrs. W. S. Carter, Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. Pesscock and the Countess of Ashburnham. During the afternoon the bird houses, made by the students were exhibited. There were many styles and shapes, according to the habits of the various birds, the swallows, woodpeckers, wrens and martins. This work is the first of its kind that has been attempted by the students, and indeed was a great credit to them. Governor and Mrs. Wood and many of the members and their wives were present.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Ketchum was hostess at a delightful tea. The tea table centered with yellow iris, was presided over by Mrs. T. B. Winslow and Mrs. Adam Cameron. Those assisting with the refreshments were: Mrs. John Stephens, Miss Grace Winslow, Miss Babbitt and Miss Taylor. Among the guests were Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. and Mrs. Hebbington, Mrs. Ernest Smith, Miss Jardine, Miss Smith, Mrs. Byrne, Mrs. T. Carleton Allen, Mrs. Ross Thompson, Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, St. John, Mrs. Burchell, Mrs. McRae, Mrs. Howie, Mrs. A. J. Thompson, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. McCaffrey, Mrs. Charlie Allen, Mrs. Holden, Mrs. W. C. Crockett, Mrs. Lee Babbitt, Mrs. Vansell, Mrs. Thomas Mrs. Slipp Mrs. P. C. Holden, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Harry Chestnut, Mrs. Stieve, Mrs. McGeehan, Mrs. W. T. Chestnut, Mrs. O. B. Crockett, Mrs. Tweedie, Mrs. Giles, Mrs. Lawson, Miss Harrison, the Countess of Ashburnham, Mrs. Miller, Miss McLaughlin, Mrs. S. Nell, Mrs. Harold Babbitt and Edith Gregory.

Lieut. Atwood Bridges is in the city for the U. N. B. ancones.

Mrs. C. J. Osman, of Hillsboro, returned home on Saturday.

The concert given by the Kilties Koneer Company last Friday evening for the benefit of the returned men was a most successful one. The house was packed by a very appreciative audience and all did their various parts well. From a financial standpoint it was shown that the Fredericton people are most willing and ready to assist this organization. The members of the government were most generous in presenting the Normal School students with tickets.

Mr. Leonard McLaine left on Thursday for St. John.

Major and Mrs. D. Allen Laurie returned on Saturday from Halifax.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, May 18.—Mrs. W. D. Forster of St. John arrived in town on Monday night and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. Carleton L. Ketchum.

Mrs. H. Wynne Haddock, of Fredericton, spent Tuesday in town visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Carr.

Hon. W. P. Jones is being congratulated on his appointment as president of the Valley Railway Company.

Miss Ruth Dickson of St. Stephen is visiting her friend, Miss Alice Vawter.

Mrs. George Smith and little daughter, Mary, are the guests of Mrs. I. Haman.

Miss Pugsley of Sussex is the guest of Mrs. S. Pugsley, Elm street.

Miss Lillian Burden, Houlton, spent a few days here with friends last week.

Mrs. E. A. Burden and her daughter, Thelma, left on Thursday for Truro, N. S.

Mrs. H. J. Pugsley is recovering from an attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Ralph White of St. John is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Milverth.

Mrs. P. L. Orchard, accompanied by her children, has gone to Montreal to join her husband, the Rev. F. L. Orchard, who is pastor of the Olivet Baptist Church, there. Her son, Mr. C. Orchard, accompanied her.

Mr. H. H. Orchard, who is teaching at Middle Southampton, spent a few days in town last week.

Miss Margaret Hamilton is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Clarence Hallett, Millville.

Mr. T. C. L. Ketchum received a telegram Monday morning stating that his only son, James, had died of wounds in France, May 4th. The deceased enlisted in January, 1915 with the 23rd Field Battery in Fredericton. He was later transferred to the 2nd Hogitzer Battery. He led his graduation class in the Woodstock High School and had the Carleton county scholarship in U. N. B., where he was in his third year when he enlisted. He received treatment in that institution, $10 is to be donated to Major Burley, Y. M. C. A. fund, and $5 to the Provincial Fund for St. Dunstan's Institution in England for training blinded soldiers to become qualified to fill remunerative positions.

The hostesses at the Red Cross tea on Tuesday afternoon were: Mrs. George Howard and Mrs. O. N. Chipman.

Several members of St. John lodges and from the Happy Home lodge at Woodstock were in Woodstock on Tuesday evening to attend the Grand Rally of the Hampton I. O. G. T. After the usual opening exercises and initiation of new members a program was given by the visiting and home members taking part. An address from Grand Chief Temple, E. N. Stockford, was also heard. Refreshments were served by members of the Hampton lodge.

Master Weldon Brown, of St. John, is the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

The friends of Major E. C. Weyman will be pleased to learn that another telegram has been received from him informing his father, C. W. Weyman, of Lakeside, that he has been removed from France to a hospital in London, where he is receiving treatment, and that he is progressing as favorably as can be expected.

Word has been received from Lieut. Cecil Langstroth that he has joined the Flying Corps. Lieut. Langstroth left Canada in October as a member of the Engineers.

HAMPTON

Hampton, May 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Compton are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a young daughter in their home.

Miss Hattie Barnes left on Thursday for Rethesda where she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Crook.

Mr. Bruce Hayes of Chipman, was a visitor in Hampton on Friday.

Master Ronald Patrick is undergoing treatment at the Infirmary, St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Malcolm, of St. John, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. King.

Mrs. S. S. King was a weekend guest of Mr. W. B. Barnes, of Riverside, arrived this week to take a position in the Bank of Nova Scotia in this place the vacancy being caused by the taller, Mr. Baird being transferred to a St. John branch, and Gordon Kenny being promoted to the teller's box.

Mrs. Frank Laher, of Springfield, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith.

Mr. John Malcolm, St. John, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Malcolm, on Saturday.

Mr. Wilfred Tuttle, a former resident of this place, but for the past few years living in Alaska, Saskatchewan, is a guest of his aunt, Mrs. Robert Baxter and receiving a warm welcome from his many friends. Mr. Tuttle returned the first of the year to become a member of the 236th Battalion, Fredericton.

On Monday evening Pte. Tuttle was guest of honor at a dinner served at the Wayside Inn and tendered by his former chums. Toasts were drunk to Pte. Tuttle, the King and country and the ladies. The "merry gentlemen" separated after singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" and "God Save the King. Pte. Tuttle returned to Fredericton on Tuesday.

Miss Alice Clark was a weekend guest of St. John friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Green and Mr. and Mrs. Tolman, of St. John are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pederson, Lakeside, where they will spend the summer months.

Mr. E. A. Schofield, a member of the central executive on increased food production campaign, is busy this week arranging and attending to the 23rd Battalion, Fredericton.

Major Roland Barnes (M. C.) has been removed from London Hospital to the Kingston Hospital, Kingston, where he will receive further treatment.

At a meeting held on Monday evening at the home of Miss Stella Wemyss, the Hampton Dramatic Club was formally organized. Mr. Harold G. Taylor being elected president and Miss Phyllis McIwanna secretary-treasurer, the executive to be appointed at a future meeting. The worthy object of the club is to raise funds for patriotic and philanthropic purposes. The sum of $10 has already been forwarded to the Jordan Sanatorium to defray expenses of a patient receiving messages of sincere sympathy.

This week's hostesses at the Red Cross tea Tuesday afternoon were Mrs. H. E. Puddington, Mrs. John H. Thomson and Miss Annie Puddington.