

71st Anniversary of S. O. T. Division

Golden Rule Lodge Celebrates
—Casino at Hopewell Cape
Being Erected.

Special to The Standard.
Hopewell Hill, April 6.—The 71st anniversary of Golden Rule Division, was held in the Temperance Hall on Tuesday evening at 8 p. m.

A fine programme was carried out, consisting of speeches, music and readings. The worthy patriarch, J. G. Moore gave a historical account referring feelingly to the charter members as pioneers in the temperance cause. A fitting tribute was also paid to their late member, Miss Evelyn Robinson, whose death occurred quite recently. The Rev. George Sellar and Rev. F. B. Colwell were present and gave short addresses.

The foundation for the new Casino at Hopewell Cape Rocks is being laid. This will be one of the finest summer resorts in the province. The Rocks are a wonderful sight, formed by the washing of the tide. Thousands of tourists come to view them every summer.

The maximum length of a horse-drawn R. F. D. route is fixed by law at 36 miles. The minimum length of a motor rural mail route is 50 miles.

When Baby Comes

WHAT a joy to mother's heart when baby comes! What a relief after months of anxiety and nerve strain! Mother is happy and expects soon to be strong and well again.

But frequently reaction sets in, and when the excitement is over she is left weak and limp and does not seem to build up the way she should.

Fortunate the mother who has at hand the kindly nurse or attentive friend to tell her how Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help her at this critical time.

Now more than ever the mother requires the assistance of a blood-forming, tissue-building, nerve-invigorating treatment, and these requirements are admirably met by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. Wm. Woods, Coldwater, Ont., writes: "After the birth of my baby I was run down, nervous and could not eat or sleep, jumping at the least noise. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food built me up and made me strong and well again."

Mrs. David Logan, Thorburn, N.S., writes: "A friend of mine whom I went to see after baby was born told me she used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food all through the expectant period and attributed her good condition and splendid baby to its use."

Drew Sentenced To Life Imprisonment

Nearn Got Four Years With Eight Lashes — Drew Protested His Innocence.

Two severe sentences were imposed yesterday morning by Mr. Justice Crockett in the circuit court upon George Drew, found guilty on a charge of rape, and William Nearn, found guilty on a charge of attempting to know carnally a girl under the age of fourteen years and guilty on his own admission on a similar charge with another child.

Life imprisonment was the sentence given Drew, and four years with one whipping, consisting of eight strokes of the lash, was the sentence awarded Nearn.

Nearn Was Quiet.
Nearn took his sentence very quietly, having nothing to say, but Drew protested his innocence and cast reflections upon the court and upon the conduct of his trial. He was at last ordered to remain quiet, and his obedience to this command saved his being removed from the court room before his honor passed sentence upon Nearn.

Judge Crockett said to Drew that he had been convicted of a most heinous and brutal crime. He had very grave doubts, much mingling in fact, since the finding of the jury, as to whether or not he should sentence the prisoner to the maximum penalty allowed—death, but after much deliberation he had decided that the ends of justice would be served and it would be a lesson and example to others by a life sentence in Dorchester penitentiary.

Protests Innocence.
When asked if he had anything to say as to why sentence should not be passed upon him, Drew stood boldly before the court with both hands in his trousers pockets, no sign of emotion upon his countenance, and strenuously protested that he was innocent of the crime. When sentence was pronounced he said he would sooner be hanged than take the imprisonment for life.

To Nearn, also, His Honor spoke of the odious nature of the crimes in which he was involved. He did not think the sentence allowed by law was quite severe enough. The nature of the evidence given in his case was most degrading. He had come to the conclusion that he would give as many years as the law allowed, two in each case, and would also instruct that the prisoner be once whipped, the whipping to consist of eight strokes of the lash.

There was a very large crowd in the court room and a squad of policemen took extra precautions against a hostile demonstration as the prisoners were being taken back to jail in the patrol wagon.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

Fairville, N. B.
April 6, 1921.
Editor of The St. John Standard, St. John, N. B.

Dear Sir:—In your editorial of the 4th inst. you say in reference to my letter of the 3rd inst. that I must be aware that the remedy I suggested, stopping the sale of game, was tried in 1918, when Dr. Smith was Minister of Lands and Mines, and that it was found to be a failure.

Really I wonder, was it a failure? Can you, Sir, or anyone in N. B. tell me why it was a failure, I would like to know the reason why.

Was it really a failure to protect the game, or was it a failure to protect the hunters? Why prohibit the sale of partridge, or trout, or in fact anything if it fails to protect?

Why is the sale of game prohibited in the United States and most of Canada if it fails to protect the game?

Moose meat has a habit of appearing on the St. John market in a surprising short time after the season opens. I have hunted moose for many years and consider I know a little about it, but these market hunters have me beat a mile when it comes to getting a moose. Get him out of the woods and on the market, and of course these moose before the season opens, the law forbids it, and when the cool weather sets in, these gentlemen don't get one or two moose for house consumption, because the laws only allow you one moose, well again I wonder.

Your contention that game would be better in the woods to be sold would be good some years ago, but not today. The man who is lucky enough to get one, sees to it that it gets out, it is valuable now, and years ago moose were hunted mostly for their antlers, today there is not much antler to hunt, and meat is the object.

Also if moose could not be sold very few hunters would kill a moose until the weather permitted the saving of that meat. And the market hunter makes his big drive when the season is young and prices good. When the market is glutted, and prices decline, there is the house market.

Like the Hun in his rush on Paris, male, female and child goes down in the push, all is meat in the pot, the younger the better.

In conclusion I claim that the law of 1918 prohibiting the sale of moose and deer meat, was not a failure, that it did, while in force protect the game, and I challenge any man in this province to come out in the public press, and over his own name, and address, to prove otherwise, to prove that this law does not protect the game and why not.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor,
I am yours very truly,
CHARLES RAYNES,
Fairville, N. B.

Charged With Robbing Kelley

Kennedy and Nickerson Remanded — Liquor Cases Dealt With in Police Court.

In the police court yesterday morning Arthur Kennedy and John Nickerson were charged with suspicion of acting together and robbing John Kelly on Rilyard street on Tuesday night. As Kelly was not present to press the charge, they were remanded. Judgment was rendered in the case of Charles Duffy, charged with unlawfully selling liquor. He was fined $300.

The case against E. Levine, charged with having liquor unlawfully in his possession, was resumed. Defendant admitted having the liquor, but for his own use. One bottle of the amount seized, he said, was given him by the Rabbi. He admitted going to inspect or Crawford's house early yesterday morning and telling the inspector some men were after him, and if they didn't get some money they would "squeal." He paid $3 a bottle. He denied saying to Inspector Crawford when ordered to appear in court, "Don't take me to court. It won't happen again."

The inspector swore that accused did say the words in question. The case was postponed until Friday, E. S. Ritchie for the defence.

Charged with trespassing on C. N. R. property, Frank Mison, pleaded not guilty. Policeman Borden testified that he found the accused with two other men in a box car, which had been converted into a shack. The other two had run as soon as he entered. The defendant was sent to jail, but will be examined regarding his physical condition by Dr. Dunlop.

Three drunks pleaded guilty and were remanded. A juvenile charged with hauling down a street awning of M. R. A.'s on Tuesday afternoon was warned and let go.
