Conflicting Evidence in Embrae Inquiry—Captain Kendall Says Stordstad Changed Her Course

Quebec, June 16—Evidence amplifying the known contentions in regard to the cause of the disaster to the Embrae, Ireland at Father Point in the St. Lawrence on May 29 was brought out at today's opening session of the investigating commission, of which Lord Mersey, of the British house of peers, is chairman. So far, the main arguments of Captain Kendall of the Embrae that she was not in the collision, but that she was struck by the collier Stordstad, and of the latter, that she was in the collision, were fully amplified. Captain Kendall's testimony was given in a straightforward account of the events of the terrible morning, along the lines of his testimony at the Rimouski inquiry.

Questioned by Lord Mersey as to why he stopped his ship when he had turned his green light to that of the Stordstad, in conformity with navigation rules, he claimed he took the step as a safeguarding measure owing to the fog. He could not get by the Stordstad, and he stated, to admit that his boat could be drifted in front of the Stordstad, unless the collier had changed her course after she had bid her own vessel, which contingency he was of the opinion had taken place.

That the collier had not changed her course after she had bid her own vessel, though abortive attempts had been made to port her helm after she had been slowed down and that the Embrae was crossing the bow of the collier, were the principal points arising from the testimony of Alfred Tuftens, the first officer of the Stordstad, who was examined during the afternoon.

MANY VISITORS AT SAINT JOSEPH'S FOR JUBILEE

Memramcook, June 19—Church and illustrious debt to the memory of St. Joseph's day in the classic halls of St. Joseph's University today, when priest and laymen, men of letters, and the life of two nations, spoke from the fullness of their hearts sincere and justly merited praise the memory of the founder of the educational institution, the banks of the Memramcook. In the beautiful and classic Lefebvre Memorial Hall fully 800 distinguished guests, including 300 clergymen, gathered for the opening ceremonies in connection with the celebration in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the University of St. Joseph's.

Among the distinguished visitors at St. Joseph's are: Archbishop Casey of Vancouver, Rev. A. McInerney, of New York, C.S.C. and head of the renowned University of Notre Dame, Indiana; Rev. Arthur Barry, O'Neill, C.S.C., of the University of Quebec, and Rev. J. J. Ryan, rector of the University of Halifax, representatives of the A. O. H. I. Rev. Dr. Arthur W. Meahan, St. Anns, Rev. F. J. McMurtry, Woodstock, Rev. J. A. Ryan, St. Mary's, St. John's, and Rev. J. J. Ryan, rector of the University of Halifax, representatives of the A. O. H. I. Rev. Dr. Arthur W. Meahan, St. Anns, Rev. F. J. McMurtry, Woodstock, Rev. J. A. Ryan, St. Mary's, St. John's, and Rev. J. J. Ryan, rector of the University of Halifax, representatives of the A. O. H. I.

There were but three boys on the programme, Nigel and Roy McLean, who gave a piano duo and Harold Wilson, who gave a piano solo. They all acquitted themselves well. A flower song by Miss Ethel Farrar, carrying a basket of flowers, was very pleasing, as was a ball by eight little girls, entitled "The Blossoming Season."

Miss Gladys Carter, recently home from Acadia Ladies' College, assisted Mrs. J. A. Ryan, rector of the University of Halifax, in her rendering of Les Deux Amateurs in piano form, was greatly appreciated.

Reading by Miss Muriel Stevens, "The Little Winkie" by Rudyard Kipling, delighted the audience and closed an encore.

bera, formerly a manager of the Royal Bank, visited Bathurst last week while here was a guest of Mr. H. Bishop.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the Rev. Mr. Alexander McIntosh took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Shirley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Cooper, rector of St. George's Episcopal church, in the presence of relatives and friends. The bride, who was given away by her father, was very pretty in a beautiful gown of white satin, carrying a bouquet of roses and valley lilies. Miss Marion Miller, a friend of the family, acted as bridesmaid. After the ceremony a dainty supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh, who will reside here, have the best wishes of many friends.
