PARLIAMENT OF CANADA. Special Telegram to the Tribune. The Insolvency Act -- The Grand

OTTAWA, April 17. Mr. Domville introduced a bill to incorporate the Canada Marine Insurance continue the Insolvency Act. There was a discussion on Mr. Joly' resolution to exempt beet root sugar manufacture from excise for ten years, and the subject was postponed. The second reading of the Grand Trunk Arrangements bill was moved by Mr. Cameron and opposed by Mr. Couchon. The House adjourned early so that members would have time to dress for Lady Dufferin's grand ball. The Senate meets to night, and it is expected that MacPherson's Pacific railway ment will come up.

The bill giving the Grand Trunk further facilities for improving the road by raising more money will cause a lively discussion, but will carry. The opposition to it is led by Cauchon, who is President of roads that compete with the Grand Trunk. The bitterness of his speech yesterday will help to carry the bill. The British Crown Law Officers Opinion on the New Brunswick

(Special to the Freeman). OTTAWA, April 16. The New Brunswick school papers were brought down last night. It was found ly. They seem to think that the Catholic claims restentirely on the fact that special grants were given to some Catholic only just to Mr. Wesley to publish the schools, and they say that this does not following extract from a letter signed by give them right to remedial legislation, and they concur in the opinion of the Minister of Justice. The remarks of the nership pul wards sent home and submitted. and the previous opinion was reiterated by the Law Officers. The remarks on behalf of the Catholics were subsequently sent home. Lord Kimberley said that as the opinion of the Law Officers was twice obtained he thought it useless to submit this unless the Canadian Government desired it.

The Canadian Government in a Minute, FIRST PRIZE. dated March 18th, was that for the satisfaction of the Catholics their remarks should be submitted. The prabability that any argument would cause the Law Officers to change an opinion twice given seems small.

The Lord President of the Privy Coun-

The Lord President of the Prhy Council also states that the cate is not one to be submitted to the Queen for action. The Dominiou Government had the right to disallow or approve of this measure without reference to the Queen. He says that the case may be brought by appeal from the decision of the Local Courts.
