3. Businessmen. Personnel of the Mission will include the following businessmen:

Mr. D.W. Ambridge, C.B.E., B.Sc., President and General-Manager of the Abitibi Power & Paper Company, Limited, with head office in Toronto, who is representing the Canadian Chamber of Commerce on the Mission.

Mr. Jean-Marie Bonin, General-Manager of La Cooperative Agricole de Granby, of Granby, Quebec, who is representing La Chambre de Commerce de la Province de Quebec on the Mission.

Mr. Clive B. Davidson, Secretary of The Canadian Wheat Board, Winnipeg, Man.

Mr. James S. Duncan, C.M.G., Chairman and President of the Massey-Harris Company, Limited, with head office in Toronto, who is representing the Canadian Manufacturers' Association on the Mission.

Mr. Alex Gray, President of the Gray-Bonney Tool Company, Limited, of Toronto, who is representing the Canadian Exporters' Association on the Mission.

Mr. Frank L. Marshall, V.P. In Charge of Export for Joseph E. Seagram & Sons, Limited, with head office in Montreal, and President of the Canadian Inter-American Association.

Mr. K.F. Wadsworth, President and General-Manager of the Maple Leaf Milling Company, Limited, with head office in Toronto.

4. Aircraft. The party will travel in the R.C.A.F. "C-5" aircraft, which has carried many important personages on visits in Canada. Her Majesty the Queen, then Princess Elizabeth, and the Duke of Edinburgh travelled in it during their visit to Canada in 1951.

5. Purpose. The fact that a Minister of the Crown and senior executives of leading Canadian firms selling in the market are paying a visit to nine Latin American countries is, of itself, a positive indication of Canada's continuing goodwill and great interest in the further development of trade. Members of the Mission will be enabled to increase their knowledge of business conditions and prospects by meeting with leading government and business executives. They will have opportunities, at functions and in private, to present a picture of Canada's industrial growth and commercial aspirations, so that business and
