Uplands, Ontario	6 September		Fog in morning to overcast. An interesting 8-week experiment conducted by the Educational Services at A.F.H.Q. commenced at this Unit. This experiment takes the form of a Musical Appreciation Study Group. Several records, a mixture mixture of classical and modern, are played, and a discussion follows the playing of each. Fifty to sixty station personnel attended the first meeting which was very successful. The Commanding Officer delivered a lecture to the members of the incoming course, No. 89.
	7 September		Overcast to partly cloudy.
	8 September		Clear to partly cloudy. General assembly of all personnel in the Recreation Hall at 1715 hours commemorating the capitulation of Italy. Group Captain Raymond and the Station Padres F/L Perkins and F/L Mooney gave anti-complacency talks, followed by a minute of silent prayer and then "Last Post" and "Reveille" sounded by trumpeters.
	9 September		Overcast, occasional rain showers. R186434, LAC Ellement, C.A.E., allowed Harvard 2650 to swing on landing and ground loop. A C-2 category accident. No injury. Accident occurred at Main Aerodrome.
	10 September		Clear to partly cloudy. Commanding Officer's Parade held at 0715 hours, five squadrons on parade. G/C Raymond, in a short talk, complimented the various sections, who received prizes from him for beautifying station grounds. The station Trumpet Band was in attendance and the parade ended in a March Past, the Commanding Officer taking the salute.
	11 September		Regular Friday night dance was held in the Recreation Hall; well attended and very much enjoyed. R185479, LAC Furness, H.W., ground looped Harvard 3236 at Main Aerodrome. No injury. A C-3 category accident. R180622, LAC Paul, K.G., crashed in Harvard BW198 during night flying, 3 miles east of R.1 Field, Carp, Ont. An "A" category crash and LAC Paul seriously injured. Cause obscure, and investigating officer appointed.
12 September		Cloudy to overcast. A large gathering enjoyed the Saturday evening movie in Rec. Hall.
			Overcast. The regular church services were held at 0800, 1000 and 1100 hours.	12
