

HYPATIA CONTRIBUTES THE CONCLUDING SENTENCES.

"Every mortal here or there has the earnest desire to know; and I, too, once living on the earth plane, suffered for the truth as revealed to me, even to death; and since I was set free I have searched for an instrument through which to come in better touch with humanity, and teach them what I have learned of truth.

Each human soul must, as an atom of the whole, reach forth for itself, in accordance with the will of the Heavenly Father, who has provided for each one, whether they climb or fall; however, like vines, we eventually climb to the great light of Oversoul. We start as parts of the great whole; and we attain along our paths through effort the things for which we pray. As vines creep up along a wall, so we climb by knowledge, the pathway of life, overcoming obstacles and thereby gaining that altitude of hope, where we see the Oversoul or Father giving us truths we can understand.

Our souls like vines reach out tendrils that entwine the truth we find along the way, and thus add to our power to attain a higher plane. Our longings for knowledge, our desire to know, are steps by and through which we receive support from the Guides.

This book is to be a guide to the inquiring mind. "Dawn of the Awakened Mind" is a wail of facts; and as such is sent forth to the thinkers of this age. As you peruse each page will tell you how to find the path to knowledge that God the Infinite Spirit hath given to all mankind, to learn how your own soul may reach out for the truth that teaches you the great fact, that man is not within his brain. The soul, the blossom, the fruit of life, grows within the human body until its journey on earth is completed, and it is ready to cross through what is termed death, into that larger life where it has more power to do good to all.

I have written this truth through you, my dear instrument; and have manifested my presence, through many mediums of
