

'Cold—cold, my dearest jewel !
 'thy little life is gone !
 'Oh, let my tears revive thee ! fo
 'warm that trickle down—
 'My tears that gush so warm. oh !
 'they freeze before they fall—
 'Ah ! wretched, wretched mother !
 'thou'rt now bereft of all !

Then down she sunk, despairing
 upon the drifted snow,
 And, wrung with killing anguish,
 lamented loud her woe :
 She kiss'd her baby's pale lips, and
 laid it by her side :
 Then cast her eyes to heaven, and
 bow'd her head, and died !
