

FALL IMPORTATIONS.

WRITING PAPERS, WRITING PAPERS.

The Subscriber begs to inform his friends and intending purchasers, that he is now receiving per Vessels in Port, and to arrive, (direct from the best Mills,) a Large and well selected Stock of WRITING PAPERS, comprising Foolscap, Post and Pott, Plain and Ruled; likewise, Large Account Book Papers, Fancy Note do. The above having been purchased previous to the advance in price, he is able to dispose of the same Wholesale, on the very best of terms.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

The Subscriber begs to call the attention of Country Merchants, Teachers, &c., to his present extensive Stock of SCHOOL BOOKS, which comprises the complete National Series, together with all British and American School Books in general use throughout the country, which he offers Wholesale on easy terms.

BLANK BOOKS, STATIONERY, &c.

The Subscriber solicits the attention of the Public generally to his Stock of BLANK BOOKS, both Imported and of his own Manufacture; likewise, his well assorted Stock of PLAIN and FANCY STATIONERY, comprising almost every article in the Line, which he offers at his usually reasonable prices.

GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD.

Sectional Paper of superior quality; Railroad Time Books, different kinds; Telegraph ditto, with printed forms; Vellum Cloth; Antiquarian Drawing Paper, Double Elephant; Imperial Medium and Demy ditto; Drawing Pencils (Faber & Reeves', and Rowney & Dillon's).

CAMPBELL BRYSON.

Montreal, October 10, 1853.