

Books which should be in Every Library

The Story of Isaac Brock

By WALTER R. NURSEY

First volume of the Canadian Heroes' Series. Profusely illustrated, containing six illustrations in colors from original paintings, by C. W. Jefferys and other noted Canadian artists, and sixteen illustrations in half-tone from rare drawings and photographs.

Beautifully bound in blue cloth, with colored inset of battle scene on cover.

85 Cents Net.

Heroines of Canadian History

By W. S. HERRINGTON

With group frontispiece illustration of the Heroines.

Buckram Cloth, 30 Cents Net.

Every Parent and every Teacher should secure the new book just issued on the boy problem.

Your Boy: His Nature and Nurture

By GEORGE A. DICKINSON, M.D.

Profusely illustrated with pictures of Boy Life.

Cloth, $1.00.

Many books have been issued on the boy problem, but it has remained for Dr. Dickinson to write the best book on this subject.

A Human Document of the Highest Interest and Importance.

The World I Live In

By HELEN KELLER

Cloth, Illustrated, $1.25 Net ; Postage 8c. extra.

Another record of the miraculous by the remarkable young lady who is deaf, dumb and blind, and whose famous autobiography, "The Story of My Life," which has had such a wonderful sale, is universally regarded as a "book without a parallel in the history of literature."

AT ALL BOOKSELLERS

WILLIAM BRIGGS, Publisher, 29-33 Richmond Street W.
TORONTO

Please mention THE TEACHERS MONTHLY when writing to advertisers

Vol.

A Schoo
In Au
Fraser his du F
of the Assem presen develo
ERS M LEAFL undert illustri tinuati Recor trated appeal for a s preced to the QUART already ably o
Tl School the chi public Service MONTH been po to help In empty Commi out aid mence adequa