The clerical life certainly seems to be conducive to longevity, for lately the Rev. Canon Fraser, Vicar of South Weald, Brentwood, Essex, celebrated his ninety-seventh birthday. Canon Fraser regularly takes the services at the Parish Church, and undertakes pastoral duties. He graduated from Trinity College, Cambridge, as far back as 1837, and has been at South Weald since 1877.

The Committee formed to make a presentation to Dr. Wilkinson, for a quarter of a century Bishop for Northern and Central Europe, has sent him a cheque for 100 guineas to dispose of as he wishes for some missionary cause, together with an address. The address takes the form of a mitre when closed, and when open of a triptych. The signatories expressed gratitude for the marked development of Church life and work that the Bishop's devotion and energy have been brought about.

The Very Rev. Dr. Ovenden, Dean of Clogher, has been appointed Dean of St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin, in the place of the Right Rev. Dr. Bernard, D.D., Bishop of Ossory.

At the consecration of the Bishops of Gibraltar, Korea, and Taunton, respectively, held in St. Paul's Cathedral lately, no less than seventeen Bishops joined with the Archbishop of Canterbury in the actual act of the laying-on of hands.

A new diocese, the eleventh in the Province of South Africa, has been formed out of the dioceses of Capetown and Grahamstown. It is to be named the Diocese of George. The Ven. H. B. Sidwell, M.A., Archdeacon of Pretoria, has been elected to the Bishopric. The Bishop-elect was born at Grahamstown 54 years ago, and he will thus have the distinction of being the first South African-born Bishop of the Church of the Province.
