DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Is A Remedy Without An Equal For COUGHS, COLDS, And All Affections Of The THROAT and LUNGS.

Coughs and Colds do not call for a minute recital of symptoms as they are known to everyone, but their dangers are not understood so well. All the most serious affections of the throat, the lungs and the bronchial tubes, are, in the begin- ning, but coughs and colds.

Too much stress cannot be laid upon the admonition to all persons affected by the insidious earlier stages of throat and lung disease, as failure to take hold at once will cause many years of suffering, and in the end that terrible scourge of "Consump- tion."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is not Sold as a Cure for Consumption but for affections tributary to, and that result in, that disease. It combines all the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree with other absorbent, expectorant and soothing medicines of recognized worth, and is absolutely harmless, prompt and safe. So great has been the success of this wonderful remedy, it is only natural that numerous persons have tried to imitate it. Don't be humbugged into taking anything but "Dr. Woods." Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents.

WORMS IN PIGS

Would like to know what will cure pigs of round worms, six to eight inches long? Have been feeding barley meal and bran, with swill.

SUBSCRIBER.

Ans.—After fasting twelve hours, give each one tablespoonful of spirits of turpentine in sweet milk; repeat in three days. A mixture of salt, wood ashes, and charcoal, kept in a low box in the pen, to be taken by the pigs at will, is a preventive, and may effect a cure.

OLD BARB WIRE CUT

Last fall I had a yearling colt badly cut on barbed wire; the hind leg was almost sawn off. I have been doctoring her ever since. I was congratulating myself on the way the wound was healing, but in my ignorance I allowed it to grow over with proud flesh, and I simply cannot get that away. We have no veterinarian here. I have been applying powdered bluestone, and, although it eats some of the flesh away, if the wound is left alone it gets as bad as ever. There is matter running from it continually. I might say the bone was injured, I took two small pieces away from the wound.

Alta. J. W.

Ans.—You do not give us any infor- mation as to the seat of the injury on your colt. You simply say the hind leg is the part injured. We should know whether it is, on, or near a joint, and as well as you can tell what struc- tures were cut. If the growth is very large, and situated in a region where it can be safely removed with the knife, this would be the best and quickest way to proceed. The after treatment con- sists of antiseptics and astringent lotions and powders applied once or twice a day. A very good lotion is made as follows: powdered sugar of lead 1 ounce, powdered sulphate of zinc 6 drams, carbolic acid or creolin 2 drams, clean soft water (which has been boiled and strained) 1 quart. Mix, and shake well before using, or, iodoform and boracic acid, equal parts to be dusted on the cut. Absorbent cotton and bandages may be applied if the injured part will permit of the application of a bandage. If the growth is but small you may reduce it by paint- ing it once a day with butter of anti- mony. Great care must be exercised in its use, if allowed to run down on the healthy skin, it will exoriate and produce sores.

BUSHEL IN A BIN

How many bushels of grain will there be in a bin 8 x 8 x 8 and another 10 x 8- x 8?

Sask. W. J. P.

Ans.—A bushel measure contains 2,150.42 cubic inches. A bin 8 x 8 x 8 would contain 512 cubic feet, and a cubic foot contains 1728 cubic inches, making 884,736 cubic inches in the bin. Divide 884,736 by 2,150.42 and we have 412 bushels, less a small fraction. In the second bin, there will be 537 bushels. This, of course, is by measure, if the grain weighs more than the stand- ard, there will be more than by measure.

CONTRACTED TENDONS AND KNUCKLING

Mare sprained back tendons of front leg between knee and fetlock over a year ago. The veterinary applied liniment and ordered her kept in stable. Con- tinued treatment two months, lameness getting worse. Called another veteri- nary who fired the tendons, and then blistered three times.

After operation the tendons have gradually contracted, causing the mare to knuckle over badly at the fetlock joint. While standing in the stable, always places her weight on the sound leg. This continued resting has caused the hoof to become contracted, also.

1. Can contracted tendons be cut across safely, so as to bring the foot forward to the proper form?

2. If so, would leg require to be re- tained in splints and bandages until new fibrous tissue fills up the interval between the divided ends?
