

for that Purpose, till the next Sessions of the General-Assembly.

“ That Provision be made in the said Act, that every Farmer shall receive the Duty or have Credit for so much as is consumed in his District, and no more.

“ That the Duties be put up at a higher Price than the Sum paid into the Treasury last Year, which will effectually prevent their being lessened by farming;

“ And that an Enacting Clause be inserted in the Act, that the said Act shall be the Rule for recovering His Majesty's Duties and no other.

The Council sent down a Bill, intituled An Act in further Addition to an Act, intituled An Act for regulating Petit Juries, and declaring the Qualification of Jurors, with a Message, that they desire the Concurrence of this House to the same.

And the said Bill was read,

Ordered, That it be read a 2d Time.

And then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning 10 o'Clock

Wednesday July 15th, 1767.

The Treasurer of the Province, by Order of his Excellency the Governor, presented to the House, an Account of the Particulars of the Sum of £.76. 2. 2. charged in the public Accounts, paid to the Solicitor-General, by which it appears that there was an Error in the said Charge, and that it should have been as follows, viz.

To James Monk, Esq; as Solicitor-General on Account, for prosecuting the Delinquents of the Government's Revenues at Louisbourg, £.20.

Ditto on Account for Costs, &c. on the said Prosecutions.

£.21. 14. 2.

£.41. 14. 2.

To

Bill relating to Juries sent from the Council.