FATHERHOOD OF GOD SHOWN IN SCRIPTURE

Blessing of Present Harmony With God.

Signification of the Word Father—This Relationship Means Responsibility—How Mankind Lost Their Sonship—God's Character Sadly Misunderstood—The Heavenly Parent's Love for His Human Offspring—Who Are Now Sons of God—All of the Fallen Race to Have Opportunity of Becoming God's Sons—Human Sons and Spiritual Sons.

Portland, Maine, July 23.—Pastor Russell spoke here today before the B. S. A. Convention, which was held in our city this week. His discourse was based upon the opening clause of the Lord's Prayer—Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. (Matthew 6:9.) A condensed report follows:

The word father and the thought behind it should be made manifest to us all; yet it is sadly true that many who bear this name manifest but little regard for what is right and obligatory in connection with their fatherhood. The imperfect and weakness of human fathers only manifest the more by contrast the glorious perfection of the Father in Heaven—His Love, His Power.

The term father signifies life-giver, one who bestows life. The Bible declares that the great Jehovah God is the Fountain of life, the One from whom everything proceeds, the One "in whom we live and move and have our being." (Acts 17:28.) All life emanates from Him alone. Without Him nothing could exist. When we have before our minds the thought that God is a great Father, a true Father, we also have before us the thought that He is properly connected with—He recognizes the responsibility of a Father—a matter which very many of the fallen race of Adam have forgotten, but which Bible students are coming more and more to appreciate.

Every earthly parent has a responsibility in connection with his children. It is his duty to see that they are provided for as respects clothing, shelter, food for both mind and body, etc. To make such provision is a part of a father's duty; and whoever does not expect so to provide or has no good reason for neglecting that he will be able to do so has no moral right to bring a child into the world. Thoughtful provision for such child should be made before it is brought into being. The child should be a just and right principle, and one generally recognized by all intelligent people.

People Misled by False Theology. Then surely this principle would apply to the great Father from whom comes every blessing. But this contradicts much of the theology that has been given to us; for when the creeds tell us that God is all-wise, all-loving, kind and good, they spoil it all by stating that, notwithstanding His Love, Justice, and Wisdom, He is sending the vast majority of our race to endless torture. In other words, the creeds imply that God has made a miserable failure in creating mankind, and that His Plan of Salvation is a farce. We should have known better than this, even without a Bible—this is a farce. But His spiritual life was given in order that He might become a perfect man, to die for Adam and his race, and thus to open up the way whereby the whole world might be saved into the relationship of sons of God, might regain what Adam lost for himself and for his family. "Jesus Christ by the grace of God tasted death for every man," (Hebrews 2:9.) This does not mean universal salvation, however.

God's Plan Just and Reasonable. When our Lord Jesus came into the World, He opened up a way whereby those who would believe on Him and would sacrifice as He did, becoming His followers, might become sons of God, and thus be saved. Yes, the very highest plane in existence—the Divine plane. These, if faithful unto death, would share the glorious reward which the Father had promised to His Son—eternal life, life in His highest form. But the religious leaders of His day did not believe on Him, did not receive His Message; and during His ministry only about three hundred of the people believed. The god of this world—Satan—blinded their eyes.—2 Corinthians 4:4.

The people asked, "Have any of the Scribes and Pharisees believed on Him?" When they learned to the contrary, they concluded that there was nothing in the Message. They took the course that many are taking to-day. It may be asked, Why did our Lord not open the way for the whole world to become spiritual sons of God, instead of for only an elect class? We answer, We are sure that God is taking the best way for the whole Plan is of Him. He could would suffer eternally. He could not be just to have permitted the propagation of the race, Satan in quick to suggest, "God would have destroyed Adam if He could; but, having made man with an immortal soul, even the Creator cannot destroy mankind now."

From no other source than from the great Adversary of God and man did this idea emanate—that in creating man God gave him something that even the Almighty cannot take from the race. How puerile such a God would be! This prevalent but erroneous thought is directly contradicted by our Lord Jesus Himself, who said, "Fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna"—the Second Death. (Matthew 10:28.) The Almighty God, who knew the end from the beginning, would bring no beings into existence whom He could not destroy when they had proved themselves unworthy of the blessing of life.

No Eternal Life in Misery. Furthermore, the Bible declares, "All the wicked will God destroy." (Psalm 145:20.) How simple, how reasonable, the Bible is! We get our confusion of thought by neglecting the Word of God and taking instead the traditions and vagaries of men, which have been handed down from the Dark Ages. Bible students, however, are finding the wisdom of going directly to the Word of God. The wisdom from Above is what we need, not the wisdom of this world, which is foolishness with God, and which is becoming more and more foolish to all thinking people. The Heavenly wisdom comes only from the Word of God. 1 Corinthians 3:19-21; James 3:17.

In taking the text which I have chosen, I am saying that I greatly appreciate the thought here presented of a loving Heavenly Father, do not misunderstand me to mean what many to-day mean when they speak along this line. Some very learned people talk about the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Doubtless they mean well enough in referring to God as the Father of the entire human race in their present fallen condition; but they speak of a loving Heavenly Father, do not misunderstand me to mean what many to-day mean when they speak along this line. Some very learned people talk about the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Doubtless they mean well enough in referring to God as the Father of the entire human race in their present fallen condition; but they speak of a loving Heavenly Father, do not misunderstand me to mean what many to-day mean when they speak along this line.

The plain declaration of the Bible is that our first parents, Adam and Eve, received life from God, and His promise to them was that if they would keep His commandments, they would continue to live; if they failed to do so, they would be cut off from life. There was not even a hint given of a life continued eternally in torture, as the penalty of disobedience.—Genesis 2:17; 3:19; Ezekiel 18:4, 20; Romans 6:23. In forewarning our first parents as to the sure result of disobedience, God also intimated that in such a case He would disown them, would go longer be their Father. They became disobedient and thereby lost all right to life. Thus from God's standpoint, the entire race of Adam is dead—condemned, not to eternal torment, but to death. The right to life has been taken away. They are under legal condemnation to death. Thus we see that the human family are not now the children of God. Adam was a son until he forfeited that blessed relationship; but from his day onward no member of his race is called a son of God, except our Lord Jesus, while He was in the flesh. He was a Son of God before He came to earth as a man; but His spiritual life was given in order that He might become a perfect man, to die for Adam and his race, and thus to open up the way whereby the whole world might be saved into the relationship of sons of God, might regain what Adam lost for himself and for his family. "Jesus Christ by the grace of God tasted death for every man," (Hebrews 2:9.) This does not mean universal salvation, however.

God's Plan Just and Reasonable. When our Lord Jesus came into the World, He opened up a way whereby those who would believe on Him and would sacrifice as He did, becoming His followers, might become sons of God, and thus be saved. Yes, the very highest plane in existence—the Divine plane. These, if faithful unto death, would share the glorious reward which the Father had promised to His Son—eternal life, life in His highest form. But the religious leaders of His day did not believe on Him, did not receive His Message; and during His ministry only about three hundred of the people believed. The people asked, "Have any of the Scribes and Pharisees believed on Him?" When they learned to the contrary, they concluded that there was nothing in the Message. They took the course that many are taking to-day. It may be asked, Why did our Lord not open the way for the whole world to become spiritual sons of God, instead of for only an elect class? We answer, We are sure that God is taking the best way for the whole Plan is of Him. He could have kept the way of salvation closed until the Millennium, and then have done for all alike. But this was not His Plan. He purposed first to gather out of the world an elect Church. This is not an arbitrary Plan, however; for He is not selecting any contrary to their own wills. All who are called have the privilege of accepting or rejecting the Call. Whoever prefers to wait until the next Age, and take the opportunity then to be offered to the world, may do so; but the offer then to be made will not be nearly so glorious as that now held out.

There are some who desire to know and to do the will of the Lord, if only they are shown what it is. To this class God purposes to show His Plan and to give them His choicest blessings. He gives them the opportunity to join with Jesus in His sacrificial work for humanity the privilege of suffering with Him now that they may reign with Him by and by, in the Kingdom. Foreknowing that there will be a class of this kind, who would gladly give up all pleasures and the ambitions of the present life for the far grander blessings which He has to bestow, God has given them the privilege. He has sent forth His Message far and wide, to let this class know of their opportunity.

The Class Which God Now Seeks. For over eighteen hundred years this call to sainthood has gone forth few have responded, and the world has generally set it at naught. People in general do not think it worth while to go to some small upper room to attend a little prayer-meeting or to some ordinary hall to hear preaching. They prefer to go to some fine edifice to hear an eloquent oration and charming music. God has permitted His Truth to be thus obscured from the worldly-wise and self-sufficient, and to let it appear as if the Gospel were accomplishing little or nothing. But all along He knew just what He was doing. He has always been accomplishing His designed. He has always been accomplishing His designed. He has always been accomplishing His designed. He has always been accomplishing His designed.

The class which God is selecting now have sharp ears for the true Gospel Message. When they hear of the Love of God in Christ, they believe it. They listen to God's Word, rather than to human theories and traditions. They become pupils in the School of Christ, the followers of the Lord Jesus. The Master has a smooth way. His path was rough and thorny. Some, when they learn this fact, stop immediately. Others, however, press onward, even though they know the way to be narrow and rough. They desire to get back to God; for they find satisfaction nowhere else.

These hear that our Lord Jesus will become an Advocate for whom contracts to follow in His steps, and that the Father will not receive them without this Advocate to make good for their weaknesses and blemishes. They learn that our Lord will become the Advocate of any who will accept His terms—"If any man will be My disciple, let him deny himself, take up his cross and follow Me." To deny self means to give up one's own will and take the Master's will instead. Whoever takes this step will find various crosses and difficulties along the way. The contract is not last for a month or for a year, but for life. Our Lord guarantees that His grace will be sufficient for all who follow Him, that His strength is made perfect in weakness. Surely this is sufficient assurance.

There are not many of this class anywhere. But it is only to this class that God now becomes the Father. There are the sons of God, through the begetting of the Holy Spirit. These say with their Master, "If I delight to do Thy will, O my God! Thy Law is written in my heart." If in their hearts they should say, "I know that I have to do God's will, and so I will do it." He would say to them, "Go back, for I am seeking only those who love My will, not those who serve merely through fear or compulsion." Those who take a stand with Christ must burn all the bridges behind them when they enter the narrow way. They are to follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth. Only such will constitute the Bride class.

"The Father Himself Loveth You." It is only after we have received the begetting of the Holy Spirit that we are privileged to say, "Our Father which art in Heaven." The world cannot call God their Father, but through our Redeemer the Church has this privilege. And so the Apostle says, "Now are we the sons of God." (1 John 3:1, 2.) But as such, we are not free from the aches and pains incident to the groaning creation. While in the flesh we must suffer, but still we are the sons of God, in the sense that we have the begetting of the Holy Spirit. In the resurrection change, however, we shall really be the children of God. By nature we were children of Adam, condemned to death in him. But when in our consecration we gave up everything pertaining to the human nature, our Lord received us and made us acceptable to the Father, who then begot us with His Holy Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry "Abba, Father!" This is a blessed position; for our Heavenly Father is in perfection what earthly parents should be. He has made every provision for us. Our Lord Jesus is simply carrying out our Father's Plan.

This brings us to one of the most precious texts in the Bible: "The Father Himself loveth you." It is a wonderful thought that the great God, the Almighty, should love those who are so weak and sinful as we are. We can understand how He might tolerate us and endure us if we came into harmony with Him; but the thought that One so infinite in Wisdom and Power should LOVE US seems marvelous indeed. When we realize our own littleness, realize that we are mere bundles of imperfection, we marvel at the love of God for His children.

COL. WILLIAMS AT BRIDGE ST.

Chief Recruiting Officer For Canada Occupied Local Pulpit.

FAITH IN THESE DAYS
347 Methodist Ministers in Khaki—Over 300 in Ranks.

Lt.-Col. (Rev.) Cecil G. Williams, chief recruiting officer for the Dominion of Canada, filled the pulpit of Bridge Street Methodist Church. In the evening his sermon was on faith. This he illustrated by the lives of Enoch, Abraham, Noah, the parents of Moses, and Jacob the trickster and supplanter. His address was tinged with the war. Many a man he said had gone into this titanic struggle and at the foot of the Cross, the divisional point of all history had found things bitter grow sweet.

The faith of India was illustrated by the remarks of a missionary. He told Col. Williams, that the Orient had been flooded with German literature, telling of the downfall of the British navy and the capture of London and suggesting that India make peace with Germany while it was still today. But the Mohammedans recognize that this is not a war of religion but one in which the eternal principles of right is battling against might. So the strongest anti-Christian sects are loyal to the core to Britain. Their faith is a wonderful thing. Nothing in all the world has paid so well as the missionaries—the modern representatives of the Man of Galilee.

What is faith? It is placing emphasis upon facts as opposed to feelings. Lt.-Col. Williams told the story of a nurse on the firing line administering to a dying soldier. Asked by an officer what was her authority, "God Almighty Sir" she replied. But the usurer dies in his faith friendless and alone.

These are troublous days. By faith we believe that honor is more precious than life. A man may live to seventy or eighty years and yet be laid away as one of the pigmies. We are not counting life by years. There are over 55,000 war widows in England today and the casualty lists are growing. In one crowded hour of glorious existence, a man may live more than in an entire lifetime. God grant that the multiplied sorrows of this war are not setting our hearts by faith God does not disappoint the dying Christian soldier. There is not a man who left Canada's shores that wanted to die. But young lives full of sunlight and peace, went over the precipice, caught into the larger full life in the full hand of the Eternal.

"In the mighty business of today, I discern something more than mere anarchy. The purposes of God march to fulfillment. As we come to a glorious victory, we shall find that nothing really worth while has been lost. Our dead heroes will have won immortality and civilization security." Across the line, they used to sing "John Brown's body lies a-mouldering in the grave, but his soul goes marching on." Let some such faith be given us in this hour. It is the old time struggle, life out of death—the cross and then the ineffable glory of the Resurrection.

Referring to the part played by Methodist ministers in the war, he said there were 1,000 of eligible age. He was proud to tell that of these no less than 374 were in khaki, 41 of them being chaplains, scores are humble privates in the ranks, over 300 of them combatant men. The ministry is taking its full share. What the presence of ministers in the ranks of a battalion mean will never be known until the Resurrection.

Bees Swarmed

A hive of bees belonging to the House of Refuge swarmed this morning and flew in a cloud up to the city and lighted in a tree hanging over McAnnany street. Mr. T. Wilson, superintendent of the Refuge came up and secured them.

IF YOUR THROAT IS HUSKY
CATARRH MAY BE STARTING

A weak or irritated throat is the first step towards Catarrh. Everything depends upon your remedy. A cough mixture slips quickly over the weak spots, drops into the stomach and does little but harm digestion. It's altogether different with Catarrh-ozone—it cures because it gets right at the trouble. You inhale Catarrh-ozone, breathe in the vapor of healing balsams that strengthen and restore the weak throat tissues. You'll never have colds or coughs. Throat trouble and Catarrh will disappear with the use of Catarrh-ozone. Get the large dollar outfit which includes the inhaler, it lasts two months and is guaranteed to cure. Smaller sizes 25c and 50c, sold everywhere.

LOWER SCHOOL EXAMINATION

List of Successful Candidates in Hastings and Prince Edward

The candidates named below, under counties, have passed the Lower School examination for entrance into the Normal Schools and Faculties of Education.

In addition to the above, they require to pass the Middle School examination before they can be admitted to the Normal Schools, and the Upper School examination before they can be admitted to the Faculties of Education. Those who have already passed either of these examinations are reminded that the Normal Schools open on September 1, and that application therefore must be made to the Deputy Minister of Education not later than August 25. For information concerning the Faculties of Education, applicants are referred to the Registrar of the University of Toronto or of Queen's University, Kingston.

Private Dixon Missing

Bellefleur Man in Casualty List—Was Grand Trunk Fireman.

Pte. George Dixon, who enlisted in Bellefleur in the Mounted Rifles, and left for England last September, has been reported missing. His wife and two young children lived all winter at 345 Gladstone Avenue, Toronto. Pte. Dixon before enlisting was a fireman on the Grand Trunk. He is 28 years old and has been married for eight years. He has two brothers in khaki—Fred Dixon, at present in France, and Will, now in England.

"NERVILINE" CURES CRAMPS END MISERY INSTANTLY.

No Remedy so Speedy or Efficient.
A real cramp cure.
Yes, a real one—in a twinkling the cramp is a dead one, and the last squirm is over, once you get a stiff dose of Nerviline on the inside.

This isn't mere talk—it's a solid, truthful fact. No other remedy—no single one—will cure cramps so quickly and harmlessly as Nerviline. It hits the spot in a jiffy and saves a heap of misery.
"Last Saturday night my stomach felt like an infernal machine," writes T. P. Granger from Hartford. "I was awakened from a sound sleep and found myself suffering the worst kind of torture. I was so doubled up I could hardly cross my room. I had used Nerviline before for the same thing and took a real good dose. Once I felt the warm, soothing sensation of Nerviline in my stomach I knew I was all right. It finished the cramps—just one single dose."

Sickness at night is rendered a nightmare of the past if Nerviline is handy. It may be carache, toothache or cramps. Nerviline in every case will cure at once and save calling the doctor. Nerviline is a family physician in itself. The large 50c. family size bottle, of course, is most economical. Small trial size costs a quarter. All dealers sell Nerviline.
