THE SITUATION

The United States authorities are considering the plan of starting a flow of U.S. troops through the British training centres and thence to announced is personally taking up the expediting of transports together with the obtaining of Allied ships to help in the work of conveyance. It is further stated that an appeal for haste has emanated from the Allies.

Complete co-operation has been inaugurated between the United States and Canada with reference to an effective distribution of labor for war purposes. Each will report their needs to the other and it is particularly hoped that difference in the time of harvesting will enable both countries to use the same help without imposing a handicap on either.
