A telegram was received by Wolfville friends the past week from Laredo, Texas, conveying the sad news of the death of Mrs. Grover C. Nye, formerly Miss Evelyn Thorne Bishop, of this town, who died in the hospital at Laredo, May 13th, after an illness of eight weeks. Beside her husband and little daughter, aged two years, the deceased leaves in Laredo, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Bishop, and in Wolfville her grandmother, Mrs. Julia Bishop, and aunt, Miss Ernie Bishop, all of whom have the profound sympathy of many friends in their irreparable loss. Mr. and Mrs. Nye visited Wolfville three years ago, shortly after their marriage; and the latter's parents then moved from Wolfville to Laredo to be near their daughter. Mrs. Nye was a music pupil at Acadia Seminary and after her graduation went to Laredo to engage in teaching. Her marriage with Mr. Nye soon followed. Further particulars as to her death are expected by her friends here next week.

We feel sure none of those who heard Miss Bewley last year will miss this opportunity of again listening to this talented reader, while for those who did not, a rich treat is in store.
