QUAHN.
Quahrs, Oct. 20.—Last Thursday evening Miss Nancy Jane Comstock was married to Mr. Timothy Guild, a worthy young man of Mallorytown. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's father, the Rev. Mr. Service, pastor of the Methodist church, Mallorytown, being the officiating clergyman. The guests were the personal friends of the bride and groom. Mr. Guild is to be congratulated on his wisdom in coming to Quahns for a wife, and we feel sure he will never have occasion to regret the beauty and goodness of Quahns girls is known far and near. The best wishes of a host of friends follow the young couple to their new home.

ELMER MILLS.
Elmer Mills, Oct. 20.—Mr. E. H. Hanks returned Saturday evening from a short trip to the western counties. Mr. Sam. Barry having been released from the county boarding house at Perth made his appearance here last week.
Two steam threshers have been at work in this vicinity lately. The traction engine belonging to the Davis Bros. was the first of the kind ever seen here, and was viewed with much interest. The other engine is owned by Mr. J. H. Hall, near Addison.
A fine monument was recently placed in the graveyard here to the memory of the late Edward Bellamy and his father, mother and child. The remains of the father will be moved from Athens. The monument was erected by the remaining members of the Bellamy family, and is a much deserved mark of respect to the memory of the one who are buried here.

LEWIS & PATTERSON
BROCKVILLE.
Our collection of Fall & Winter Dress Goods is very large. There are so many especially nice goods that it is impossible to do them all justice. We feel satisfied however that an examination of our Dress Goods Department will develop something more than a seeker for information, for the manner in which Dress Fabrics have been cut up during the past week is proof positive that we must be pretty near right both as regards quality & price. Are you in need of a New Dress?

LYN.
Lyn, Oct. 20.—The W. C. T. U. have opened a library and reading room where young and old men can spend the long winter evenings. Their ice cream venture having proved a success they feel encouraged to go on in the good work. Opera will be supplied during the winter on Saturday evenings, instead of ice cream.
The roller mill is running night and day by steam.
Rev. Mr. Phillips has been very ill and unable to fill his pulpit for the past three Sabbaths.
On Sabbath, 12th inst., the Church of England had a very interesting service took place. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion.
Wm. Lee and family have the sympathy of all in the loss of their eldest child with scarlet fever on the 16th.

WESTPORT.
Our public school trustees have engaged Mr. Wetherall as boss pedagogue for 1891.
The Presbyterian social held at Mr. McKnight's was well attended.
We have been given to understand that the Methodists intend creating a new parsonage on the church grounds in the near future.
Mr. J. H. Whelan has acquired the Portland Marble Works. John can sell tombstones as cheaply as any one in eastern Ontario.
A Mission Band has been organized in connection with the Presbyterian Sunday School.
The editor, reporter, etc., of the Westport Journal took an outing this week and left their readers without a paper. However they were kind enough to give timely warning and thus save disappointment.
Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Oliver's Ferry, intends holding special services in Blair settlement, commencing on 27th. No less than 20 new houses have been built in Westport during the past year and a half. This is in itself a good recommendation of the business done in the village at the head of the lake.
A grand parlor social in aid of the Methodist church will be held at Mr. Wm. Wing's on Friday evening next.
We are in receipt of a letter from the western part of the province on the have the McKinley Bill has caused the barley market. One commission merchant lost nearly $300 in 10 days on account of the duty. Even in our midst its effects have been already felt by the farmers who have any barley on hand. These are some of the grand (?) results of yankee retaliation to Foster's high tariff system.
