the Electors At Wingham and Makes Many Friends-Hon. Gee. E. Foster Nominated For North Toronto-How the Political Pot 1s Boiling All Over

Wingham, Oct. 7.-The Conservative rally here yesterday was a success. Mr. Borden arrived by the C. P. R. train which was unfortunately an heur late. East Huron Conservatives are proud of their leader. He was met at the station by the was met at the station by the band, and a large reception committee. On arrival upon the platform he was received with applause and presented with a basket of flowers by Miss Irma Kennedy and Miss Mabel Swarts. An address from the Conservatives of East Huron was their read by T. Hall, editor of The Advance, and the Conservative chieftain plummed at once into the subjects of vance, and the Conservative chieftain plunged at once into the subjects of paramount interest to the electors. There was an immense crowd, which listened with interest to Mr. Borden's address. He referred to the breken pledges and the unenviable record of the past eight years. The Auditor-General's unheeded request for larger powers and the Government's refusal were referred to. The fer larger powers and the Government's refusal were referred to. The resolution moved by Mr. Borden in the Mouse was read and attention drawn to the fact that the Liberals veted down the reasonable motion. The Conservative leader then took up the question of the G. T. P. and showed the enormity of the bargain and its tremendous cost to the people of this country. Upon this topic Mr. Borden spent his time until the time for the departure of the train, had arrived. Though his visit was brief, the leader of the Conservative party won many friends and made a most won many friends and made a most favorable impression upon the hundreds of electors in East Huron.

He was followed by T. Chisholm, the prospective Conservative candidate, whe was received with continued cheers.

Montreal, Oct. 7.—Hon. Rudolph Lemieux, Solicitor-General, was nominated yesterday at the Liberal convention held at Belancourt, to contest Nicolet against George Ball, the Conservative candidate, who in the general election of 1900, had a majority of 141 over his opponent, Charles Milot, the Liberal candidate. Mr. Lemieux will also run in Lemieux For Two Seats. Mr. Lemieux will also run in Gaspe, where in 1900 he had a majority of 1,362. In Gaspe the election, if a candidate is nominated against Mr. Lemieux, will be held on Dec. 8.

This situation, with Lemieux standing for two constituencies, is not due to the dearth of candidates, but to the fact that the Government is not prepared to risk a defeat. The situation gives information that all is well with the Liberal party in

Again the Go-Between.

Bowmanville, Oct. 7.—Rumor is busy with this story: A prominent lawyer, who has in the past been exceedingly active in the Liberal interest, demanded, after the last election, a reward for his services. Me was informed that a county judgeship could be his, but he valued his party services higher and insisted upon a high court judgeship. The late member did what he could, but reperted that his efforts were unreported that his efforts were availing, for the reason that the applicant was as well known in Ottawa as in Bowmanville. The lawyer was incensed and vowed that never again would he te found elevating the standard of Liberalism. Now since the taking of Mr. Aylesworth in the Cabinet, and the contemplated shuffle in the Liberal nomination, the lawyer is awain becoming active and shuffle in the Liberal nomination, the lawyer is again becoming active, and his friends are explaining that he has a promise that as soon as Mr. Aylesworth becomes Minister of Justice the high court judgeship will be delivered. Apparently Mr. Aylesworth is beginning well.

Bowmanville, Oct. 7.—Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, K. C., is acceptable to the Liberals of Durham County or at least so far as the unanimous approval of a full meeting of the county executive members, barring one absentee, is concerned. A resolution was adopted after some discussion approving of what Mr. Beith had done. The county convention is called to meet at Newcastle on Monday afternoon next, at 1.30 o'clock, when it is expected that Mr. Aylesworth will receive the nomination.

LAW WAS WEAK

Mrs. Sherman McRoberts and Mr. McCreary were arraigned to-day on the charge of living together in unlawful conjugal union. H. D. Smith Crown Attorney, said that in this case case the Crown was up against previous decisions. According to the act it was necessary to prove some marriage contract had been entered into by the parties. In this case, the Crown were unable to do so. Accord-ing to the evidence before the court, Crown were unable to do so. According to the evidence before the court, this was a case of adultery and the laws didn't recognize adultery as a crime. Mr. Smith couldn't enforce moral laws. He asked that the case be dismissed. Judge Houston in allowing the prisoners to go said that so far as society was concerned their offense was as bad as it could possibly be, but in the eyes of the law they were not guilty. He hoped this would be a lesson to both. Mr. Smith remarked that the law ought to be changed. O. L. Lewis defended the prisoners.
