DOCTOR DECAPITATED.

Montreal, Dec. 31.—Following closely upon the Winsted disaster the G. T. R. line was the scene of another bad accident to-day, though fortunately the loss of life was not great.

The scene of to-day's accident was the Victoria Bridge, which spans the St. Lawrence between Montreal on the north and St. Lambert on the south shore of the river. Two freight trains, the one following the other on the St. Lambert side of the bridge shortly before noon, running apparently in the same direction, when the engine of the second train ran into the caboose at the rear end of the first, and the latter was derailed.

THE WATER FIGHT.

Twice like an old-time love-feast, that watch-night for it seemed that heaven was just so near to us as the light around us streamed.

Jerusalem, the golden, flung all its portals wide.

And we saw, 'neath a banner bright and all-revealing sky, That far-off land, O'er the straits, where our possessions lie.

And heard, while all our songs of joy were thrilled and wailed o'er, A softer, sweeter music from the bright, celestial store.

The dear old songs of Zion—the old and ever new.

From praying lips and hearts that night were answered from the blue.

We listened for the answer, with perfect faith, and then

When one cried "Hallelujah!" soft echoes said "Amen!"

"Amen!" each face uplifted seemed a shining world of light.

The radiance of the realm that know no sorrow—no pain—no night.

When our dear ones blessing to His children He denied.

When the Lord Himself shall wipe away the tears from our eyes.

Twice like an old-time love-feast; O, scenes were brought to view.

We had the old-time singing, and the "old religion," too!

We saw how low he walked with us through valleys of despair.

Until at last, the dangers past, His love had led us there!

And all sang "Hallelujah!" in sight of heavenly lands.

'Twas a glad shaking up of hearts, as we saw by the wayside, when the engine of the second crashed into the van and the next car in the act of making the connection when the collision took place.

Sleep in Single Beds.

(The Family Doctor.)

If single beds were more numerous than they are a great many people would be better off. When one is tired, sick, cross, restless, out of sorts, he or she ought to sleep alone and not communicate by proximity the maladies that afflict him. The brute creatures when sick go away by themselves till they die or get over their troubles, and this instinct a great many human beings have. Those that have it are best when indulged in it—not to the slightest degree of neglect, however. Where two children in a family must share the same room, in a great many cases they would be better off to have two single beds rather than one wide double bed. We can share it great many things with those we love, but solitude clings to us from birth to death. We come into the world alone, we must go out alone, and we live in it alone, in a certain important sense, and to get and keep our bearings we must sometimes be left alone.—The Family Doctor.

Do You Look on the Dark Side?

Are You Blue, Discouraged, Irritable and Depressed? It May Be Your Nerves Are Exhausted and You Need

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Irritability and mental depression, sometimes amounting to melancholy and despondency, are marked symptoms of nervous exhaustion.

In the beginning you feel languid and listless, find it difficult to remember and next to impossible to concentrate your thoughts. The tasks of the day are put off till the morrow, little things worry you, you forget your blessings and look upon the dark side of things.

At times there may be nervous headaches, spells of dizziness, indigestion, sleeplessness and general weakness of the body. You dread what the future may bring to you and feel the work and responsibility of life more than you can bear.

Mrs. J. E. Berryman, No. 35 Bay street north, Hamilton, states: "I was so very nervous that frequently I could not sleep at all, and would be so uneasy that I could not remain in bed, but would have to get up during the night in order to get any sleep. I also suffered considerably from fainting and dizzy spells, and though I had doctored for some years, I never seemed to get anything that did me any real good until I began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It worked a great change in my condition almost immediately, and I feel a regular use of this preparation a permanent cure."

The wonderful medicinal power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has been demonstrated in thousands of cases, gradually and certainly it creates new nerve cells, builds up the system and overcomes the weakness which gives rise to nervous ailments and feelings of depression and despondency. New hopes, new confidence, new vitality are instilled into the body, and health and strength take the place of weakness.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. All dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
