The Herald.

VOL. I. CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. ISLAND, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1864. NO. 12.

THE CONFEDERATION QUESTION.

Correspondence.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

SIR,—In the month of the 8th instant there appeared a letter, in the Hon. William H. Pope, wherein, with considerable vaunt, he has endeavored to shift the responsibility on my part, in my having opposed the contemplated Federal Union of these North American Colonies. This charge of inconsistency, together with the assignment which was advanced was merely the pretext for the members of the P. E. Island Delegation to decide upon. The Government of Queen's Island, Delegation was then called upon to [illegible] Mr. Pope's letter, and may be expected to call for some remarks from me. In availing myself of your permission to do so, I shall have to add a little to the circumstances that led to what I had heard advanced by a co-delegate of mine, in the Conference, which gave rise to Mr. Pope's letter.

Mr. Pope followed me in the House of Assembly, and explained, as he could, the [illegible] which I had made in the Conference, and which was merely the question of representation, and that the whole question of representation had been settled at the Conference, which gave the Island fifteen members, and that the Island was not entitled to more. The Government of the