We wish it to be understood by all parties that we are not responsible for the sentiments of the Wasp.

The "Wasp."

"I hope I don't intrude."

And so you have been duffed Julia; have you? Ah, yes, duff and Pike go well together, eh. GLORY LANE

Alas! alas! Guy Fawks lost the Pike off his hook. It may be Tom-son's fault, but we think it was his own. BUMBLE BEE.

Johney F. the amateur courtier is keeping very good hours this summer considering that "ma is gone to the northward." NIPPER.

We would advise a certain young man of our acquaintance not to be legging it so often up Bannerman Street. Take care Johney the eye of the WASP is upon you.

WANTED.—A goose for one of the (so-called) gander tribe a graceful one won't answer, one that has a lean knowledge of flying and fond of Pike preferred.

His Excellency the "Wasp" has been pleased to appoint Joe Wuds, Esq., D.L., as Chinese Consul for Newfoundland vice Mose Pleaseman gone to Torbay.

There is a certain young lady in Harbor Grace who can have any young man she wishes. Nevertheless she was very short 'tis true on Sunday night last. STING NETTLE.

We understand our esteemed friend Willie the Pokor has been appointed successor to Guy Fawks, the well-known Pike fisher. We wish this enterprising gent every success. LOO.

Friend Harry who has been sailing foot by foot, with a slack sheet, for a considerable time, sees two difficulty's ahead, that of Taylor Point on the starboard and Out Cake Rock on the Port bow, and the only way he can escape is by guying over his boom and driving through. MERMAID.

Our friend the high plumed gent, who has lost his darling Loo for the summer, is trying his best to get another companion to console him in the meanwhile. It won't do my fine fellow; you can't get both. We would advise you to stick to the Loo or else may be you will lose both.

A VOICE FROM THE OLD NEST.

In one of the Forts at St. John's a few nights ago, some of the crew of H.M.S. Belarouphen were aroused from their slumbers by the crying and scolding of one of the crew, who apparently awoke from a sound sleep and repeated the following words.
Oh! P—, my darling, had we not done the thing so openly I might have been with you still. O-ELEPHANT.

Jimmy Fitzjard arrived at St. John's per last Plover. We were glad to see our old friend while in the city, and must conscientiously say he is looking as young as he used to was, we hope Mrs. G—c will don her sweetest of smiles and see that Jimmy is properly cared for. (In the grub line) for he is a well known epicure.
Surely that new wig she got out cannot but attract. But we see not her charms.

Our Newfoundland Pike and trout are considered by all epicureans as delicious and nutritious as those of any country in the world. Our fresh beef considered good but when we meditate on the tenderness the many superior qualities of some of the Sydney heifers, our own seems to lose its excellence, in fact it is totally eclipsed.
A small quantity of this dainty article is now in the market, which is greedily devoured by some of the Guy Fawks speciees. SYDNEY.

A GOOD ONE.—Runsim-down jack (of the Times) has at length been christened. From this time hence he will be known by the name of the horse- stinger—Billy Comfort to the contrary?
What a name! The soi-distant editor (angels and ministers of grace, thunder and lightning and whiskey hot defend us) of the Times—the big ignorant blabberer—the defender of the "Queen, the constitution and the people?" turns out to be only a "Horsestinger." Tarry not friend Mospuito go for him. The Wasp is ever ready to lend you a helping hand; but we guess you are too many guns for him. And his big brother Dick? Pshaw! A child at five years of age has more brains than both these geniasses put together.
