We want the whole family, father, mother, sons and daughters to deal with us for their clothing, boots and shoes, dress goods and cottons. We can sell them all at lower prices than elsewhere, be sure to call at J. B. McDonald & Co's.

ARMED Day was fully observed in the city public schools on Friday last. These were pleased by the pupils of the different schools, and appropriate literary exercises were afterwards held. Suitable addresses on the subject of true culture were made by prominent gentlemen, lay and clerical.

Mr. L. H. DAVIES intended to have opened the campaign in West Queen's, at Milton on Monday night last, and called on the 11th engaged by the Farmer's Club, and could not be had for a political meeting. Consequently there was no meeting. That looks something like a snub to the Maritime Grit Leader.

A SPECIAL correspondent of the Mail and Empire at Winnipeg had this to say of the demonstration to Sir Charles and Hugh John: "Never in the history of the Canadian Northwest, never, perhaps, in the history of the Dominion, has the public given so grand an ovation, so spontaneous an outburst of respect, loyalty and devotion as that which the citizens of Manitoba accorded to Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Hugh J. McDonald tonight. Winnipeg, as a city, turned out on masses, and ten thousand of her people followed the old Cumberland war-horse and their own 'Hugh,' shouting themselves hoarse with enthusiasm. Without exaggeration, it may be said Winnipeg has gone wild with delight. Its streets and thoroughfares are transformed from those of a town of 40,000 people to a city equal to Toronto. At this hour there is a crowd of fully 5,000 citizens in front of the Manitoba Hotel, waiting to shake hands individually with Canada's Premier. Occasionally he comes out on the veranda in response to the urgent entreaties of the multitude, and at each appearance lusty cheers rend the air. 'This is grand,' said Sir Charles, 'I never expected it, for with truth I did speak, for local Conservatives themselves are literally amazed at the stupendous ovation. From end to end of Canada he is told Canada is loyal to Sir Charles Tupper and the great party of which he is so able a leader. Tonight's demonstration will go down to posterity as the most memorable in the history of Manitoba.'

FARMERS, remember that to have a supply of fresh vegetables for the summer you must have seeds, and good seeds. As we grow vegetables very extensively, we claim to be in a position to grow, plant and sell seeds that are reliable, and we sell only seed that we plant some of the same ourselves. Make out a list of seeds required and leave it with us when you arrive in town, then if you waste your time talking politics your seed will be ready when you call at J. J. Gay & Son, Ch'town Market.

SPRING FASHIONS

PATON & CO'S

In Ch'town I viewed a few fashionable models in Millinery which were very different from the prevailing fashions. To begin with, everything is shot-straw, tulle, and flowers: even roses are bladed and spotted in a way that would astonish horticulturalists. For instance, this broad-brimmed, gossamer hat of a brown tint is trimmed with sprays of tulle leaves, veiled in brown and green tulle, which also forms a lanceolate crest on one side, balanced by bows of chine ribbon to match, and clusters of blue and green roses above and below the veil. Tulle is as popular as ever, and I greatly like a coarse burnt straw one with pyramidal crown, finely trimmed with wings of cream and black lace, bows of old blue ribbon, and knots of polychrome tulle. A ladylike hat of primulas at the back, whilst another black bonnet was relieved by rosettes of white straw, and a very novel one with all the appearance of satin beads, ribbons, and waving tulle, was also noted, was trimmed with ears of lace, clump of black and white spray, and knot of pretty black straw hat lined with mingled amongst the narrow strings behind. The dress goods here was most elaborate. A very novel hat of black cloth, lined with green tulle, and draped over the forehead, with a veil of black and white spray, and knot of pretty black straw hat lined with mingled amongst the narrow strings behind. J. B. McDONALD & Co.

Old Proverbs In New Settings.

The month of May is going to be one of very unusual interest in our big store. An immense quantity of goods has arrived, and we are all on the jump selling them.

Spick and Span New.

That's what the new Hats and Bonnets are. There is not a ladies or child's face on this Island that we cannot suit to a "T." The new trimmings are elegant—the flowers and ribbons especially. If you can't find just what you want in our big stock, you will find it exceedingly hard to get a husband to suit you.

A Nine Days Wonder.

That's what our big stock of Dress Goods is. We bought nearly 3,000 yards direct from the man that made them, and so are selling them at lower prices than we ever were able to do before. At 40 cents we have a beautiful line of new goods, and at 28 cents we show a handsome novelty. At 70 cents you get elegant goods fit to be married in; in fact goods that usually sell at $1.00 a yard.

Love at First Sight.

When you see our $2.98 tylish Capes, that's what's going to happen, we know as a fact that $4.00 is frequently asked elsewhere for no better goods. If you want a good serviceable Cape $1.40 will buy it at our store, and if that is too high we have handsome Capes at $1.05.

As Good Luck Would Have It.

We struck a bargain in Print Cottons. There was an awful quantity, but we cleared the lot. We do not believe any firm in Canada has an equal bargain in Prints. A handsome Dress Print that we sold thousands of yards of at 13 cents we now offer you at 8 cents a yard. Of course we've lots cheaper lines, but this breaks all records and stamps our store as the cheapest on P. E. Island.

The More the Merrier.

We're having a rattling spring trade, but we want yours too. You save money by dealing with us, and more than that we've got just the very thing you want.

Facts are Stubborn Things.

We don't pretend to have all the bargains in the world, but we do claim that no shop on P. E. Island is offering so many bargains to-day as we are. Call and prove for yourself.

Deeds, not Words.

Is our motto. We've got ten bargains on our shelves to one that we advertise. That's why we have captured so large a slice of the business of this city.

As Merry as the Day is Long.

Because there's no excuse for long faces in our store. A little money buys a big parcel of goods that wear well, look well and wash well, and we're bound to capture the trade if every smart woman who wants to do so well and becomingly.

Tho' Last not Least.

We've got a hundred Ladies' Black Cloth Jackets all sizes, made of excellent cloth, and our price for them is just $1.00 each. Think of it, only one hundred cents for a genuine $3 and $4 Cloth Jacket. How we got them so cheap is worth knowing, but the most important thing is to buy one for yourself and another for your daughter.

What's in a Name?

A good deal. Our name backs up all we have said, and promises a hundred other bargains equally as good to every reader of the HERALD. Now is the time to buy.
