We have possession of most of the facts of the case, together with the nature of the discovery, but refrain from giving it publicity until the police can act in the matter.

Annual Meeting.

On Wednesday night the parishioners of St. Thomas's Church held their annual Easter meeting in Canon Wood Hall. Financial Warden Goodridge submitted the accounts for the past year. The Heating Committee's report was read by Mr. F. E. Rendell, and the report of the Committee to provide a memorial to the late Mrs. A. C. F. Wood, by Hon. R. Watson, and the report of the Finance Committee by Mr. Maidment. Mr. A. Findlater, the C. E. I. Parochial representative, reported on the work of the Institute. Hon. R. Watson presented a report of the improvements made during the past year. The Rector then read his annual report and nominated Mr. M. G. Winter as his Warden. Mr. F. E. Rendell was appointed as the People's Warden. Messrs. M. Winter and W. Monroe were re-elected delegates to the Synod, and Messrs. T. Winter and A. Findlater, auditors. Messrs. Harvey, Lawrence, Hunt, Carnell and Oke comprise the Cemetery Committee. The attention of the Rector and seating accommodation will be dealt with by Messrs. LeMesurier, Winter and Goodridge. After votes of thanks were passed the meeting adjourned.

Workman Injured.

At 11 o'clock this morning James Bradbrooks, a Municipal Council employee, had a narrow escape from being fatally injured. As it is the victim is badly hurt and it will be some time before he can resume work. Bradbrooks was engaged digging a sewer on Gower Street. He was removing clay out of the "cut" when suddenly Drayton's horse came along. The carriage that was attached went into the "cut," one of the wheels striking the man in the back and pinning him to the earth. A number of people who witnessed the affair ran to Bradbrooks' assistance and released him from his predicament. Later the injured man was driven home and attended by two physicians. It is thought he is hurt internally.

LINEVILLE, To-day.

Zeppelin IV, which is the latest and largest model, carried ten passengers, of whom four were officers.

The captain explained to General Lescot, that the Zeppelin was undergoing a test, prior to being taken over by the War Department. He and other officers have been assigned that task. They left Friederichshafen in the early morning bound for the Grand Duchy of Baden, with the intention of making a trial. They had mounted to a height of 3,000 metres (about 9,750 feet), and had lost their course in the clouds. As they were short of gasoline they decided to land. They did not know they had crossed the French frontier. The chief officers and engineers of the corps removed the engine so that the airship could not get underway, and the carbiners searched for photographic apparatus or similar articles. Nothing of that nature, however, was found. The German officers were permitted to telephone Friederichshafen for a supply of hydrogen and for mechanics. Some spectators who witnessed the landing of the Zeppelin say she had a German flag flying, but when near the ground it was hastily hauled down, torn to pieces and thrown away apparently with the idea of avoiding an unpleasant incident. After the German officers had answered the questions of General Lescot and been searched, they were taken in the Mayor's auto to an hotel. Military engineers made an examination of the airship. They found she had been slightly damaged, partially deflated. It will therefore be impossible to move the airship until hydrogen is brought from Friederichshafen, and repairs made. No instructions have yet been received from the Minister of War regarding the disposition of the airship. Meanwhile it is solidly moored to iron stands and watched by soldiers.

The Singers
at Rossley's Theatre

Last night the Star Theatre had a great audience and one and all came away delighted with the performance of Shadrack and Juliette Talbot. The Song Bird of the West, as she was named while in California, Miss Juliette Talbot was born in Italy and educated in France. She sings equal to the best in Italian or French. While in London her singing of "The Palmers" in French, took the large audience by storm. Mr. Shadrack was for many years leading minstrel man with Leo Dockstader, G. Evans Honey Boy Minstrels, Haviland's Minstrels, and many others. His black face acts is where he shines. He intends putting on short sketches, and playlets when Mr. Rossley returns. Miss Talbot changes her costumes with every act and she is noted for her superb wardrobe. Jack Rossley, the genial proprietor of the Star, was fortunate in securing these fine artists.

At both places great meetings were held, and Mr. Cooker, the F.P.U. delivered eloquent speeches, which elicited the approval of his audience. Archers were erected, mottoes displayed and hunting shown at the places he visited.

Tor's Cove Wants
Cashin to Keep Promises.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—As petitions for money to carry out marine works, seem to be the order of the day, could I trouble you for space for a few remarks.

The late Government, through Mr. Ellis and Cashin, started a breakwater between the main land and an island some four hundred feet distant. A sum of money was expended and three blocks of wharves were built. We were assured that this work would be completed. Many were of the opinion that to structure not built of concrete could stop this passage as it is open to the ocean, and the sea there is terrific, especially with heavy northeast gales. We have been long hoping to get this place stopped as it is a hardship on the wharves for small craft in the rough season.

When the present Government was elected and Mr. Cashin returned for the Southern Shore, many of us thought he would complete the breakwater. He was asked if he would do anything, as we saw that it would not be difficult matter as the wharves though unfinished and unsupported, had stood the severest tests. He advised that a petition be got up and that he would do all he could. The petition was signed by every man from here to LeMarche, and presented to the House by Mr. Cashin. Ten men were appointed to look after the matter and some correspondence followed. The result, however, was nothing. Nor was anything else done beyond some small grants for roads given to a special few.

We want the breakwater badly, and think we have been greatly neglected that it is not done. The Government is being reminded of heavy overdrafts on marine account, as well as others, but none of that money came this way. We are paying revenue as well as the rest of the people, and as we have to get it out of our pockets, like most of them, we want our share of the public money.

Some are for getting up another petition, and we again say, if they say a petition was sent and Mr. Cashin promised to do all in his power. It is up to him to keep that promise. He knows how badly we need this breakwater, and should in justice attend to the matter. We are a small number, only about five or six hundred, but we have votes, and fairly good memories.

We hope Mr. Cashin and his partner will keep this in mind, and before the spring advances, send us along some money for that breakwater. People about get a lot of sticks on speculation, and these could be secured. There will be no excuse if the matter is let drop. Come, Mr. Cashin, let us see you have some interest in us. You know, promises don't count for much, but they tell against a man's honor when they are not kept.

Thanking you for space, I remain,

Yours truly, GUMPHREY.
