Address to Bishop White

We publish to-day, by request, copy of the address presented to His Lordship the Bishop of Newfoundland, during his recent epicopal visit to Curling Bay of Islands. The address done on velum, the work of Mr. A. H. Barrett of the Western Star was illuminated with wreaths of roses thistles, shamrocks and laurels, and was enclosed in a metal case, covered with morocco leather, as a lasting

To the Right Reverend William Charles White, D D., Lord Bishop of Newfoundland and Labrador. Right Reverend Father in God:—

On this your first visit to the Parish of Bay of Islands, on behalf of the Parish we extend to Your Lordship a very sincere and hearty welcome.

We rejoice that a son of Terra Nova—one with such a splendid record and varied experience in Church matters—has been elevated to the office of Chief Pastor of this extensive Diocese, and our hopes are raised to look for and our hopes are raised to look for great things done for God and Holy Catholic Church.

We have viewed with alarm at-tempts made that would tend to weaken the Church's position with her educational instituations. But we have every confidence in Your Lord-ship as a champion and leader of the Church's established policy for the education of her children in the Catholic faith, and assure Your Lordship of our unswerving loyalty and support in maintaining the rights and privileges of the Church of England in this Diocese.

Your visitation will bring to Your Lordship's personal notice how extensive and unwieldly are many of the Parishes and Missions of the West and the great need for more priests along the coast.

We trust your Lordship will carry away with you warm assurances of the loyalty and good wishes of the Church people of this Parish. And we earnestly pray that the good hand of God will guard and prosper you on your visitation and that you will be spared long to guide the destinies of the Church in your native Diocese. Your Lordship's obedient servants,

Henry Petley, Rector; Andrew L. arrett, Ulric N. Bagg, Church Wardens; George Perrett, Alex. Cunning, Joshua Sheppard, Wm. Leggo, Vestry; R. Sheppard, Jr., Ed Park, C. W. Lark Hr; Fred Mitchell, Hy. Noseworthy, Middle Arm.

HIS LORDSHIP'S REPLY.

Mr. Rector, the Churchwardens, Gen tlemen of the Vestry, my Friends. There are three things in this address which I don't want to pass over; these three things I shall speak of very briefly now since I hope to have other opportunities to speak of matters in general, but you have seen fit to refer to three points of vital importance to the diocese at this time. Before I go any further I want to say how pleased I am with the reception accorded me. Of course, it what one would expect from New-foundlanders and I want to thank those of you who met me at the station and the members of the band who kindly contributed their services. would like to refer to that very eautiful arch which you have built ere near the church. It is indeed a work of art and must have cost some body a large amount of work in designing and building it. I think it is one of the most beautiful productions of that kind I have seen during my visits through the country. I want to thank all the people who helped in the work.

The most important point perhaps is the subject of Church education. You have been good enough to assure lege—but you know that through lack me that you are prepared to uphold of funds it had to be closed. Our You have been good enough to assure my point of view regarding Church principal resigned and returned to

There is a kind of false liberality abroad in this country. I may say a mistaken liberality, a mistaken view of definite steps had to be taken. There church union. There have been were two ways open to me, one was to several people in favour of amalgamation of schools who have made reference to the opinions expressed at the Lambeth Conference which was the Lambeth Conference which was recently held in England. I can as- the right one. Our college is now open sure you that these persons have and nine students have matriculated. They took their examinations, passed One of the last things these 250 bishops would have desired was to Moreover, this We have had our college opened now roposed union would be one of for the past year, but we have had no otestant recommendations only and at is not unity; what of the Greek fore the opening of the college we dethat is not unity: what of the Greek Church? What of the Ancient Eastern Churches? What we want is a unity to include all these. There are many people desiring to amalgamate schools with those of several other Protestant denominations but there is no suggestions that our Roman Catholic friends should be included. Then why should we who are very nearly their equals numerically? We are told that our teaching is not different from that of other Protestant denominations; that there is nothing in our creed to hold on to. But this is a proposition which demands too much of us. We can't pay so big a price to be agreeable. I believe that such a step if taken would prove disastrous to the Church in this country and would be a serious blow to religion, and I intend to oppose the movement to the best of my ability. That is one thing you referred to. The second point is the question of unwieldly missions, including your own. I know that some of our missions are very much too large and have seen good evidence of the fact have seen good evidence of the fact during the three years I have been visiting around the island. I have great admiration for our clergy who, at the risk of life, try to accomplish the impossible. We do need our parishes divided. There are two things which we must consider, and one is the third point you have mentioned—the scarcity of our priests. At one time scarcity of our priests. At one time priests were sent from England and paid by the S. P. G. and since then this society gave us an annual allowance This amount dwindled until it reache the sum of $1200 a year and then we decided we should have pride cnough
